

Mayor's plea draws little sympathy No money offered in support of court

By DALE GOWING
Of The Roman Staff

A plea by Romulus Mayor Terry L. Troutt to the City of Belleville and townships of Van Buren, Sumpter and Huron for financial help for the operation of the 34th District Court is drawing little sympathy.

Convinced that Romulus will not be able to support the expanding court in the coming fiscal year, Troutt sounded an SOS to the smaller municipalities within the district. But that cry for help resulted in no monetary commitments from the communities and even less hope for the future.

The opinion of the mayor and supervisors of the four communities seems to be that since they are barely breaking even - and some are even losing - on the court now, giving assistance to Romulus would throw their budgets deeper into the red.

"There's no sense going back to our township boards and saying, "We're losing just a little now, but we want to help Mayor Troutt and lose a lot," said new Sumpter Supervisor Elmer Parraghi.

"We'd be hard-pressed politically to agree to share in something that will be a losing thing," added Van Buren Township Attorney John R. Axe.

The opinions were voiced at a "summit meeting" of the mayors, supervisors and attorneys of the five municipalities within the 34th District Monday. Troutt called the meeting, hoping to elicit support from the other four members.

As it now stands, Romulus is responsible for keeping the court solvent, since it is the largest populated municipality in the district.

State law mandates that the largest community in a district be responsible for the court, the other municipalities may lend a hand, if they so desire.

Of all ticket or fine money taken in by the court from each municipality, except Romulus, two-thirds is kept by the court. One-third is returned to the municipality. Romulus receives none of its fine money back.

Troutt maintains that the court could stay on its feet if each community did not receive its one-third refund automatically. He proposed that the district impose a program similar to that in the 33rd District, headquartered in Trenton.

There all fine money stays with the court, and any excess is refunded proportionately to the municipalities. Deficits also are made up by the entire district.

"That is the more equitable way of doing it," Troutt. "This is not just Romulus' court, it's our court."

"If there's a profit, you should get it, but you get back your one-third regardless of the consequences.

Whether the court makes a nickel or loses a nickel it's no worry to you.

"It seems the City of Romulus sets the judges' salaries, employees salaries, appropriates the court's budget, collects the money for it and provides it facilities.

"We don't want to make a profit, but we don't want to provide you with free services either."

None of the other four municipalities pays rent on the courthouse, located in an old school building on Eureka Road in Romulus.

"All we want to do is be treated like all the other communities," Troutt said. "We all should benefit or suffer."

A second judge will be added to the court Jan. 1 to assist Judge James B. Stone. It is that addition that Troutt fears will throw a monkey wrench into the budget.

"When I look at this year's $200,000 budget and see next year's $300,000 budget, I wonder where that $100,000 is going to come from," he added. "The way I see it, we'll get back nothing and still have to supplement the court."

Romulus must supply any money needed by the court beyond that provided by fine money.

There is hope among most city and township officials that the state soon will take over the operation and funding of all district courts, eliminating the current money headache in the 34th District. But a bill pending in the State Legislature to turn over that court responsibility is not likely to become law for another year or so.

Troutt is trying to keep the court's head above water until that state takeover.

Despite Troutt's sound of alarm, the court has averaged about a $75,000 profit - excluding building upkeep costs - each year since 1971.

In the first 10 months of 1974, the profit margin stood at $62,000 and is expected to finish at $50,000.

As of Jan. 2, 1975, the court's budget will have to be increased $25,000 for the remainder of this fiscal year (ending July 1, 1975) to accommodate the new judge, said Court Administrator Charles E. Walls.

"If about $50,000 will be left over this year, and the court probably will make another 150,000 profit next year, then taking the needed $25,000 from that will enable the court to break even," reasoned Huron Supervisor George Moore. "Maybe by then the state will make a decision on whether to takeover the courts."

Several of the supervisors and attorneys said they had little sympathy for Romulus' financial plight, since the city "didn't offer any of those profits since 1971 back to us."

Attorney expects to use all of airport suit funds

By DALE GOWING
Of The Roman Staff

Although the city of Romulus and Board of Education say they cannot spend more than $7,500 each before next July 1 on their lawsuit to stop a runway construction project at Detroit Metropolitan Airport, their attorney anticipates spending much more than that.

In fact, Jerrold A. Fadern, of Beverly Hills, Calif., said Monday he expects to use up all of the total $30,000 originally set aside for the case by July.

"The total budget of $30,000 probably will have been spent by the end of the fiscal year (July 1)," he said when contacted at home.

A problem arose last week among city and school officials when they said they had been billed about $13,000 each for attorney fees by Fadern. Each body had elected last July to allocate $15,000 for the entire lawsuit, but stressed that just $7,500 each would be paid by fiscal year. If the suit continues into fiscal 1975-76, another $7,500 each would be paid, they added.

The city had paid $7,500 of the $13,000 bill received so far, and Mayor Terry Troutt said no more than that will be paid this fiscal year.

The school board has paid $4,500 of its approximate $13,000 bill, and Romulus School Supt. Robert McConeghy said he would recommend to the board "that we pay nothing more until we get this thing straightened out."

City Treasurer John B. Lewkowicz said he wrote Fadern a letter, explaining the city cannot pay more than $7,500 before July 1.

Fadern declined to say if it was his understanding that he was free to spend the entire $30,000 this year.

He said there are "several explanations" why the bills have soared above the anticipated level.

"The first is that the judge (Cornelia G. Kennedy, U.S. district court) has compressed most of the two years' work into six months," he claimed. "That caused the work to be concentrated instead of spread out - and I welcome that."

"The second is that the Wayne County Road Commission (a defendant in the lawsuit) has done all it can to make this into what is colloquially called a 'federal case,' and has fought everything we've done."

"But if your adversary wants to make each thing into an issue they can," he said.

Fadern said the third reason for the high billings was "wasted motions" made by other judges filling in for Judge Kennedy after she broke her leg. Kennedy was absent from the bench for several weeks.

In injunction bid

Suit faces stiff test

The ongoing legal battle over the runway expansion project at Detroit Metropolitan Airport will face its stiffest test Jan. 6, when the Romulus plaintiffs enter a motion for a preliminary injunction against the construction.

That date will mark the beginning of what is anticipated by court officials to be the final week of the temporary injunction process and will proceed a later trial to determine if a permanent injunction-or-halt-will be clamped on the runway construction.

The plaintiffs and defendants weathered another segment of that injunctive process Monday, a 75-minute pre-trial hearing before U.S. District Judge Cornelia G. Kennedy in Detroit.

A court official said Monday's actions centered around the listing of witnesses by both sides, a process necessary before the pending hearing. Only the witnesses now listed may be called to testify, he said.

Attorneys for the defendants and plaintiffs, including Beverly Hills, Calif., attorney Jerrold Fadern, were present at the hearing. Fadern is representing the plaintiffs, which include the City of Romulus, Romulus Board of Education, homeowner Fouad Berry and other property owners in Romulus.

The defendants are Wayne County, the Board of Commissioners, Secretary of Transportation Claud S. Brinegar and Federal Aviation Administrator Alexander Butterfield.

Wayne County Road Commission Chairman Michael Berry, Vice-Chairman Freddie G. Burton and Commissioner Philip J. Neudeck originally were listed as defendants, but have since been dismissed by the court. The three were dismissed because the plaintiffs could show no "sufficient cause of action" for keeping them in the suit.

The Romulus plaintiffs said they plan to call two expert witnesses to testify, while the defendants listed five prospective witnesses.

The two experts scheduled to testify on behalf of Romulus are Dr. Karl Kryter, director of Sensory Scientists Research Center of the Stanford University Research Institute; and Dr. Maurice A. Garbell president of M.A.G. Consultants Inc., of San Francisco, Calif.

Kryter is regarded as one of the top audio or sound experts in the country and Garbell has studied airport-neighborhood compatibility problems.

A key point in Fadern's case is Butterfield who drew up the Environmental Impact Statement which Fadern charges falsely portrays the effect of aircraft on the community.

Judge Kennedy is expected to award or dismiss the injunction within a week after the hearing begins Jan. 6.

Wayne Road widening project among priorities for funding

Major rehabilitation of several areas of Romulus is anticipated when the city begins receiving the first installments of an estimated $667,000 expected in federal funds.

Reported to be a major priority for use of the money is the widening and probable resurfacing of Wayne Road from Van Born to I-94, followed by an effort to renovate the Meadows subdivision which is sprinkled with deserted homes.

The federal funds are being made available under the Community Development Block Grant Program, a first-year program which replaces several Model Cities and urban renewal projects, said City Planner Dennis Meagher.

He added that the amounts of money made available to each city is determined by the amount it has spent in urban renewal in the last five years. The money subsequently granted the city may be used for "just about" any rehabilitation projects the city desires, he said.

According to Charles Omarzu, community assistance director for the city, about $150,000 is available to Romulus for the next three years and two-thirds of that amount - or about $102,600 - the following two years, for a total of about $667,000.

He added, however, that the city still must make formal application for the money, and obtaining it is not a certainty.

Both Meagher and Omarzu said there could be "considerably more" money available to Romulus in addition to the $667,000. Meagher added that the total amount the city hopes eventually to get is about $2.7 million.

As a request for receiving the money, the city must allow its citizenry to take an "active role" in determining what it is spent on. Omarzu and Meagher said citizen input will likely come in the form of public meetings.

Nonetheless, Meagher and Mayor Terry L. Troutt added that the city is studying several "target areas" in which possibly to spend the money.

Troutt listed five of those, including continuing the widening project on Wayne Road begun by the city of Wayne up to Van Born Road; rehabilitating the Merriman and Smith roads residential section near I-94, a similar area near Middle Belt and Ecorse roads; upgrading the city's downtown area; and eliminating the abandoned homes in the Meadows subdivision.

The officials stressed that the pending programs are not Urban Renewal plans.

Troutt said widening Wayne Road "would enhance the value of the federal money and also would enhance the new complex (Romulus Metro Plaza)" to be built on Wayne between Ecorse and I-94.

Omarzu added that "neighborhood committees" may be set up in each target area to discuss the use of the money.

Meagher said a "project outline" will be presented to the city by February, and the fund applications will have to be sent by April 15.

Also, a first-year program, third-year plan and a housing plan must be submitted by then, he added. Meagher said none of the target areas have been given priority.

"We have to assess the entire city, get input and then make an evaluation," he said. "Any input we get from the citizenry we can use."

Of Van Buren Township Union bids to represent employees

Labor attorney John C. O'Meara will represent the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees at a pre-election conference with the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) Chapter 23 in an effort to organize township employees under union auspices.

AFSCME has filed a petition with the township administration seeking to be sole bargaining agent for township employees.

The union said it represents some 25 employees. Currently the township has a full time work force of 40 employees.

In its petition, Council 23 stated it represents most of the employees and so requested certification as sole bargaining agent in negotiation of an employment contract.

The petition is the first move by any union in township history to organize township employees, officials said.

If the petition is agreed to by township officials at the pre-election conference, an election under the supervision of the Michigan Employment Relations Commission (MERC) will be held at the Township Hall, at which time the employees will decide on union representation.

Animal shelter gets state OK

The Van Buren Township Animal Shelter has been inspected and approved by the Michigan State Department of Agriculture.

The results of the shelter's recent inspection were reported by Dog Warden John Price in his monthly operation report to the township board of trustees.

The November report also showed the township impounded 45 dogs including 38 stray dogs found in the area.

Of the 68 dog ordinance complaints processed by the dog pound in November, 16 resulted in the issuance of ordinance violation tickets. In addition, nine dog bite complaints were investigated, Price said.

In a related matter the township trustees requested further information on a request made by Chief Ordinance Officer Eugene Bracken for a new 3/4-ton truck to be used as a dog wagon.

Bracken was instructed to obtain truck prices and other details from at least three different companies for presentation at the next meeting of the township board.

Approval by 30 per cent of affected employees is needed for official recognition of the union.

The union seeks to represent "all laborers," Water Department Employees, truck drivers, mechanics, maintenance foremen and the dog warden in the bargaining unit.

At the conference the union must present evidence in the form of signed union cards that township employees favor joining the union.

The township has the opportunity to file objections to the proposed bargaining unit, it was stated.

Van Buren Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer, in commenting on the union's organization drive, said: "The township will not attempt to keep its employees from joining a union, but will expect to have some say over how the sole bargaining agent is composed."

The supervisor added it would not be fair to have part of the employees in the union and part of the employees not in the union.

"If it goes that way, we could end up with two or three unions at some time in the future," he said.

The pre-election conference initially scheduled for Dec. 9 has been rescheduled for 10 a.m.

Snow delays opening of Haggerty bridge

Last week's heavy snowfall has delayed the opening of the Haggerty Road bridge possibly until the fall of 1975, according to officials of the Michigan State Department of Highways and Transportation.

The structure, the only I-94 overpass in the eastern half of Van Buren Township, was closed in September as part of the State Highway Department's relocation project to move I-94 some 100 feet north of its northern boundary.

State highway engineers estimated it would take a year before the bridge would be reopened to traffic.

Hopes of Highway Department officials to get the bridge opened by spring were dashed by bad weather in mid-November and the recent blizzard.

Warren Cox, staff engineer in the construction division of the State Highway Department said: "There's simply no way we can go ahead with the work any longer. It's going to be impossible to start doing work on the bridge again until spring."

The closing of the Haggerty Road bridge started a furor among residents who complained of inconveniences and safety hazards posed by the closing.

The Highway Department has made efforts since to get the bridge completed in the spring.

So far, the work has been a complicated program aimed at moving traffic off the existing roadway in an effort to build the abutments or supports for the bridge, engineers said.

Airport deer elude hunters

The "big deer hunt" goes on at Detroit Metropolitan Airport, and not only have none been caught, but few have been seen.

But county officials are continuing their efforts to capture a heard of deer on the airport grounds with the use of baited corrals. The deer are estimated to number from 20 to 60, but some people believe there could be as few as 10 roaming the area.

The capturing efforts have been going on three weeks, and each passing day brings about the stronger possibility that the county soon will abandon the efforts and begin shooting the deer instead—if they can find any.

"You've got to see them before you can shoot them," said Romulus Jaycee President Phil McNett, whose organization believes there are fewer deer in the airport than anyone thinks. The Jaycees have taken a strong stand against shooting the animals and have criticized the capturing efforts as being unprofessional.

Airport officials say the deer pose a hazard for aircraft on runways. In the past, deer have been spotted walking across runways. But as long as the cap-

Raffle winner named

Huron Township Fire Department No. 3 has released the names of the winners in a raffle held recently to raise funds for the department's 20th annual Christmas party.

Winning the first prize of a color television was Myrna Stemen of New Boston. Second prize, a 10-speed bicycle, went to Harold Barber of Romulus. Westland resident Al Flores walked away with a third prize of $50 in cash.

The fire fighters each year raise funds for a party for the children, during which they are given the opportunity to meet Santa Claus and collect gifts of candy, fruit, nuts and balloons.

And money raised through the raffle and not used for the Christmas party goes toward the purchase of equipment to further improve fire protection in Huron Township, according to fire officials.

of Commissioners' Ways and Means Committee on Dec. 12 voted to give the townships until Jan. 15 to decide on a cost-sharing program or face a budget cut of approximately $97,000 from last year's $476,000 level of service.

The commissioners, however, authorized $20,000 to fund the patrols at last year's level through January while negotiations among the townships and the County Public Safety and Judiciary Committee are underway.

The townships involved are Northville, Plymouth, Brownstown, Canton, Huron, Redford, Van Buren and Sumpter.

The administrators of the seven townships have joined in a Wayne County Circuit Court lawsuit which seeks to obtain a declaratory judgment on whether the county is obligated to furnish the road patrol service to unincorporated areas.

The court case has been postponed until 2 p.m. Jan. 17 when it will be heard by Circuit Judge Thomas J. Foley.

A subcommittee of the Public Safety and Judiciary Committee already has asked the townships for agreement on a program either to contract for the sheriff's services, contribute matching funds for the services, or devise a plan to provide the county with funds collected from local traffic fines.

The new $20,000 appropriation raises this year's total to $350,000, which will be depleted to $290,000 by February, with 10 months left in the current fiscal year ending Nov. 30, 1975.

If negotiations with the townships fail, the commissioners indicated they also will consider appropriating the remaining $290,000 on a "lump-sum" basis, which means that the funds will not be earmarked for specific purposes.

Under such a system, the sheriff instead of the commissioners will decide on the strength and duration of services, including whether to continue operating at present strength until the funds are exhausted or to reduce services and stretch the money throughout a full year.

Currently, the sheriff provides 28 deputies and three squad cars to patrol unincorporated areas of the county on a 24-hour, 7-day basis, without charge to the communities.

Advocates of ending the patrol services argue it is unfair to the vast majority of county taxpayers who reside in cities and townships which pay the cost of their own police services, plus the cost of township patrols.

The policy of eventually ending township patrols was adopted by the County Board of Commissioners in 1963.

Parents, educators scrutinize books

The violent nature of the textbook controversy in Charleston, W. Va., this fall widely was deplored, as it deserved to be, but that clash between parents and educators over literary selections in schoolbooks may have had some beneficial results.

It surely prompted many parents in other parts of the country including Western Wayne County to take a closer look at the books their own children carry home from school, and it should have reminded school officials everywhere that study materials should be chosen with an eye on the moral, social and religious values in their communities.

Terrell H. Bell, the U.S. Commissioner of Education, took a cautious step into this sensitive area the other day when he appealed to textbook publishers to pick materials that "do not insult the values of most parents."

His remarks might better have been addressed to educators. Publishers print texts which they anticipate will be adopted, bought and used through state and local selection procedures in which professional educators play a dominant role.

The Charleston fracas appears to have begun when educators took too sophisticated a point of view in selecting reading materials from the contemporary scene for high school pupils.

A group of parents objected, but also demanded more than they had a right to expect in limiting school material. Charleston had a difficult time reconciling these two extremes.

They must be reconciled however, if there is to be reasonable harmony between the influences of the classroom and the home on the education of a child.

A lot of literature produced in the last decade has gained eminence primarily for its shock value, both in its language and in reflecting unconventional morality.

It is not "book burning" to argue that children must have a degree of maturity before they can be expected to put such literary efforts into perspective. Some of the material in the original Charleston reading lists simply did not belong there.

Bell was right when he told publishers there is enough "good literature that will appeal to children without relying too much on blood and guts and street language for their own sake."

A child's horizons widen early in this age of mass communications and urbanized society. Education is not adequate if it is not attuned to the real world outside the classroom windows. Yet educators must realize when they try to bring that world into the classroom that they are partners with parents in nourishing the moral sensibility of every child.

Situations like the Charleston controversy can be avoided if professionals who choose study materials would be mindful of their responsibility to keep a child's discovery of new ideas in pace with the development of his moral character as it is formed by the combined influence of home, church and school.

Legislators avoid basic issues

By WES THORP
Enterprise-Roman Lansing Bureau

Chances are that reading, writing, and arithmetic will never make it to the top 10 political issues among lawmakers at the State House.

The three grade school basics don't have the political pizzazz that other issues have.

Stirring speeches can be given about welfare reform. Reporters' pencils start moving when mention is made of campaign finance reform; and heads perk up over talk of unemployment compensation.

But mention something as basic as reading, writing or arithmetic and most legislators probably will yawn and say: "That's interesting."

But, the fact is that many youngsters are being turned loose from high school without the necessary background in the basics which are a prerequisite for a successful life.

And there's got to be a reason for this. Something is wrong in the education equation when billions of dollars are spent on public schools and many kids can't read, write or add and subtract when they are presented with a high school diploma.

That's what the State Department of Education seems to be saying and the big question is when will the 148-member Legislature listen.

Maybe the House and the Senate need a hearing aid.

A brief rehash may be needed. In the tons of memos, reports and audits which line the legislative bookshelves is one from the Department of Education describing its position on paperback reading rooms.

It includes a description of the reading problems which many youngsters in Michigan have.

"Michigan is not an exception to the nation-wide reading problem," the position paper states. "The 1973 results of the state assessment (test given to the state's fourth and seventh graders) indicate that vast members of Michigan children are not able to perform many of the identified minimal reading skills."

Then there's the report from the Oakland County Intermediate School District on the readability of the textbooks used in the district's vocational courses. It was found that most of the textbooks were far too difficult for the voc ed students to read.

That meant teens taking courses such as small appliance repair or machine shop weren't able to use the textbooks which are a vital ingredient in their course of study.

Another report floating through legislative mail bags describes the efforts of the Flint School District to establish a job placement service for its high school students.

The Flint report states: "Of primary concern in the placement of students are the basic skills of reading, writing and arithmetic. More students are refused jobs because of a lack of such skills than for any other reason."

For those legislators who usually don't make it beyond the first few pages of a report that fact probably was overlooked because it's near the end of Flint's description about its job program.

And then there are Michigan's dropouts from high school. These kids leave without even four years of post grade school education.

A representative for the State Department of Education said that 40,443 high school students dropped out of school during the 1971-72 school year.

Some thoughts surface from the oratory about all hot political issues of the day.

Will a day come when vast numbers of people won't be able to read the ballot which lists candidates for the Legislature and other offices? Will these voters-to-be have enough reading skills to appreciate and understand newspaper stories about their legislators and the good things they're doing?

Will one of these high school dropouts who has trouble adding and subtracting grow-up to become a legislator who votes on appropriation bills which distributes millions of dollars through the use of complicated formulas?

One wonders if someday we will have a governor who has to have someone read his State of the State message because he can't.

At Kansas City meet

Dems adopt proportional representation

By TOM BRADEN
Enterprise-Roman Special Columnist

Everybody is talking about what the Democrats might do to damage themselves in the exercise at Kansas City; and indeed there does seem to be something self-destructive about meeting in 1974 to argue the rules for the convention of 1980.

But Kansas City aside—which probably is where it ought to be—very little attention has been paid to the possibility that the Democratic Party may have gone a long way toward scuttling itself some time ago.

Under rules already adopted, the party has opted for proportional representation in the primaries beginning in 1976. The list of perils this new rule suggests is a lot more horrifying than that which was faced by Pauline.

The new rule has been acclaimed as conducive to fairness. That may be so. But it also seems likely to be conducive to enormous outlays of money, bitter factionalism, and a nominee who owes his victory to his bargaining ability.

Democratic Party Chairman Robert Strauss defined the problem: "We have reformed ourselves right back into the smoke-filled rooms."

Under proportional representation, the man who gets the most votes in a statewide primary will no longer command that state's votes at the convention. Nor will the man who wins the most votes in a congressional district be awarded that district's votes at the convention, as has been the practice.

Instead, each candidate will be awarded convention delegates according to the proportion of votes he wins in each congressional district. The system virtually insures the following:

(1) Diffusion of effort. Candidates will no longer spend most of their time and money in big cities. Big media will be less important than organization in each congressional district.

(2) More expensive primaries.

Concentration in each congressional district will require paid organizers who know each district and who will work to publicize the delegates in each district as well as the Candidates. District appearances, district media, district offices will take the place of centralized campaigns aimed at states as a whole.

(3) Too many candidates. Many a federal and state officeholder—for that matter, many a private citizen who is well-known in his congressional district—can assure himself of attention at the national convention by winning the required minimum of 15 per cent of the vote in a single district.

They can go off to the convention with a few first-ballot votes and an assured armchair in the smoke-filled room after the bargaining begins.

(4) A bargained convention. No candidate will arrive with more than 25-30 per cent of the vote. A candidate who hasn't won a single statewide primary may have the most first-ballot votes. Bargaining among front-runners is inevitable. It will look shifty on television.

(5) Antagonism. No political convention in history ever ended without bitterness, but the next Democratic convention promises to break records for jealousy and personal rivalry. The probability that no candidate will have more than a quarter to a third of the necessary votes when the convention opens suggests a free-for-all fight among the leading candidates. It also suggests that the eventual candidate may be one who never entered the primaries at all. "Sellout," "deal" and "unfair" should become cliches by the time the convention ends.

This is the least that the Democratic Party has let itself in for by deciding in favor of proportional representation, and the least suggests the worst, which is that the convention might go on for weeks without being able to choose a candidate at all.

VOLUNTEER ARMY

It seems to be working out well

By STAN OPOTOWSKY
Enterprise-Roman
Special Columnist

The latest report from the Pentagon on the all-volunteer army is so far, so good.

The number of enlistments and re-enlistments is pretty close to the goal. The average educational level of the recruits actually is higher than during the last years of the draft. And the racial balance is holding up.

The racial issue is a ticklish one for the army because the brass fret about the problem a lot but speak out loud very little.

The fear always has been that an all-volunteer army would be so heavily laden with blacks unable to find jobs elsewhere that it would create problems.

Some feared it would chase the remaining white soldiers out of the service and leave us with an all-black army.

Some feared it would create a situation where blacks were convinced they were set up as a cannon fodder in any future war.

Happily, none of this is happening so far. And so, happily, there appears to be no reason to fear the need for renewal of the peacetime draft.

There are some, of course, who feel that we should maintain a draft even if we do not need it right now. They think that citizens in the army give it a balance that can't be matched by an army of mercenaries.

And, of course, we have had a military draft since just before World War II until 1972. Thus we have had generations who can say: "I did my part for my country—why not you?"

One problem here is that many others did not do their part. The only fair draft is a total draft — without exemptions. But throughout the draft we had exemptions for necessity, such as essential occupations (real and phony)...exemptions for education...exemptions for compassion.

Each exemption makes sense when taken apart. For example, a draft without exemptions would work havoc on the higher education system of the nation for a while. Eventually it would shake down to a student body of older students who had completed military service, but in the interim many colleges could go bankrupt.

Any such discussion is theoretical at this point. The draft was so despised in its last years that no Congressman would dare vote to reinstate it without dire military need.

This is just as well. It forces us to test the all-volunteer army for the first time since the 1930s. If there is anything wrong with it, we soon will find out.

The experiment has the by-product of forcing the military to make more acceptable as a lifelong profession and this in itself is all to the good.

We went into the experiment with all to gain and nothing to lose.

HELPING THE GOODFELLOWS—The 1974 newspaper sale of the Belleville-Van Buren Goodfellows Association was above expectations in view of the current economic situation said Jerry Maton, president of the association. Shown is Mrs.

To needy families

Goodfellows spread cheer

More than 100 needy families residing in the Belleville-Van Buren Township area are going to have a better Christmas, thanks to the Belleville-Van Buren Goodfellows Association.

The 1974 Goodfellows newspaper sale, conducted last weekend, plus pledges of other contributions made during this year's campaign the "best in several years" said Jerry Maton, president of the local Goodfellows Association.

The Goodfellows sold all of 3,500 ordered copies of the special Belleville Enterprise Goodfellows edition during the 2-day annual sale.

"We made out quite well this year, and I am real happy about it," Maton said.

Maton added that the Goodfellows had been worried about making this year's goal of $3,500 - $500 more than last year - in view of the current economic situation in the country. "It seems that a lot of people kicked in a little extra when buying their annual Goodfellow newspaper. In addition to this, we had a lot of extra help in the sale of newspapers," Maton said.

This year the Goodfellows will deliver food baskets to the area's needy families and if Goodfellows contributions permit, toys will be given to the children of the needy families, Maton added.

The Goodfellows had high praise for the volunteers who became "newsboys" again, the firemen assigned to Van Buren Township's Fire Department No. 2, VFW Post 4434, this year's sponsors of the Goodfellows paper sale; the VFW Auxiliary; Van Buren Township Recreation Commission; Belleville and Van Buren police officers; the Belleville Jaycees and community leaders.

The food baskets will be delivered to needy families on Dec. 21.

State grant to allow expanded art horizons

A new state grant will enable hundreds of residents in the Romulus area to develop an interest in the arts, according to Sen. William Faust (D-Westland) and Rep. Edward Mahalak (D-Romulus).

The Michigan Council for the Arts has approved a $1,000 grant to the Romulus Family and Neighborhood Services Program.

project is to provide an opportunity for persons who are socially isolated, emotionally troubled or financially needy to develop an interest in the arts by taking trips to various museums, exhibits, lectures and plays in the Detroit-Ann Arbor area," Faust said.

"These funds will be of particular benefit to senior citizens, preschoolers, pre-delinquent adolescents, single parents, the mentally retarded and family adjustment groups," Mahalak added.

The Michigan Council for the Arts was formed in 1966 to increase community interest and involvement in the arts.

One of the primary methods by which that is attained is the funding of local programs with similar goals."

Council hires 3 policemen

The City of Belleville soon will have in action three new and additional police officers.

The Belleville City Council at a recent special council session approved the appointments of Ernest E. Ellsworth of Belleville, Michael T. Plagany of Detroit and Scott E. Crandall of Belleville. Plagany plans to move to Belleville.

The three officers, currently in training at the Wayne County Sheriff's Department Police Training Academy, will join the city's present 6-man police force. Police Commissioner and City Councilman Harold R. Stinehour added that the city's new police patrol car is expected to be available within 30 days.

The new police car, a replacement vehicle, has been approved and will be supplied by Atchinson Ford Sales Inc. of 9800 Belleville Road.

The firm's low bid on the new car was approved by the City Council three weeks ago.

Seniors' club elects officers

Members of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club have elected Myrtle Wells of Belleville as the club's new president.

Mrs. Wells will head the 1975 activities of the senior citizens group with an all-woman administration with the exception of Bill Law, who still has an unexpired term on the Board of Trustees.

Others elected at the club's recent meeting held at the Edgemont Elementary School in Belleville were: Esther Burlingame, vice-president; Elda Bohl, secretary; Patricia Speaks, treasurer; and Kitty Hornkohl, trustees.

Members were reminded that this year's Christmas dinner will be a catered affair to be held at 6 p.m. on Friday at the Polish National Alliance Hall (PNA) located on Sumpter Road at Harris Road in Sumpter Township.

Club members who have signed up for the dinner at the Dec. 12 meeting of the club are eligible to attend the dinner.

Club members who are unable to travel to the Christmas dinner will be picked up by other members having transportation.

Santa's mailbox is set up

Romulus area youngsters who plan to write letters to Santa Claus this year will have an opportunity to deposit the letters in a special "Santa's Mail Box" located at the Romulus Public Library, 11121 S. Wayne Road in Romulus.

The Romulus Jaycees said they will assist Santa Claus by maintaining the special mail box and help in answering some of the letters received.

Children writing to Santa are asked to be sure to place return addresses on their letters Santa will be able to send his replies, said Jaycee Robert Zygal.

Real estate firm relocates quarters

The Belleville branch of the Trust Realty Company of Ypsilanti has moved into new quarters in the central business district of Belleville.

The real estate branch has moved from 525 E. Huron River Drive, Belleville, to 405 Main St. in downtown Belleville.

The branch personnel will occupy the front portion of old Van Buren Township hall facing Main Street.

The telephone number, 699-2044, will remain the same.

Students perform for young friends

A group of 30 fifth and sixth grade students attending Mt. Pleasant Elementary School in Romulus recently presented a Christmas play for lower grade students at Harrison Elementary School, also in Romulus.

The Christmas play performers are members of the Drama Club made up of students in the classrooms of teachers Charlotte Price, Donna Allen and Linda Meschke.

The performance will be repeated at 9:15 and 10:15 a.m. Friday for all students at Mt. Pleasant School, said principal Harold Connon.

Towed cars get new storage yard

A new storage location for cars pulled off the highway by county police is being set up in Van Buren Township.

A request filed by Lucille Mann of 41761 Van Born Road to store on her property cars the county police pull off the highway has been granted by the Van Buren Board of Zoning Appeals.

Mrs. Mann said there would be no junk cars adding that there would be a "fast turnover."

The Board of Zoning Appeals, in granting approval, informed Mrs. Mann she would have to construct a 6-foot cyclone fence around the property and that there be no more than 50 cars at any one time.

There were no objections filed regarding Mrs. Mann's request.

In other matters the Board of Zoning Appeals approved a request made by Woodrow Sloan of 11701 Hoyt Drive, who petitioned to have a small ice-making business in his garage to make ice cubes for gas stations and party stores.

The board also: —Granted the request of Oramel Rose of 50946 Martz Road to split his property into three lots for single-family homes in an industrial zone.

—Approved a request filed by Ramsey-Paas of 16280

Martinsville Road to build a child care center on the I-94 south service drive, just east of Boelters Welding located at 41227 Expressway.

The proposed child care center will be housed in a bi-level house. The upper portion of the house will be used as a residence until needed for children and the lower floor will take care of the 30 children, the developers said.

—A request made by Chester Podgorny of Century 21, Venoy Inc. of 32508 Michigan Ave., Wayne, to put a 960-square foot house in an area calling for $1,200 square foot house was denied.

Belleville Morgans win high point, merit prize

Two Morgan horses owned by Danny and Tommie Durgin of 240 Spencer St., Belleville, won high point and merit awards at two high point banquets recently sponsored by the Michigan Horse Show Association and the Justin Morgan Horse Association.

The high point banquets were held at the Holiday Inn in Ann Arbor on Nov. 30 and Dec. 7.

"Bar C's Elector," an 8-year-old Morgan gelding and "Sunny Hill's Susy Q," a 6-year-old Morgan mare were the horses honored at the high point banquets, according to their owners.

The high point award presentation is based on the accumulation of points won throughout the horse show season.

"Bar C's Elector" won the Reserve Grand Champion Morgan halter gelding competition at both the annual high point award banquets. Elector successfully was shown in halter classes in the Michigan show circuit by David Earehart of Poplar Farms located in Northville. He was ridden in English and Western pleasure classes by Tommie Durgin.

The wins that added up to the state championship for Elector were as Grand Champion Morgan gelding at the Michigan State Fair, Grand Champion Morgan gelding at the Davison Kiwanis Show in Davison, Mich., Reserve Grand Champion at Michigan All Morgan Show in Detroit plus numerous ribbons at other shows.

Susy Q received a second merit award at the Justin Morgan Horse Association

VAN BUREN PUBLIC SCHOOLS MINUTES

Minutes of the Board of Education
REGULAR MEETING
November 11, 1974

The Regular Meeting of the Van Buren Board of Education was held in the Board Room of the Administration Building on Monday, November 11, 1974 at 8:00 p.m.

Members present: Mrs. Doris Roe, Mr. Robert Cook, Dr. Richard Muse, Mr. Elwood Bos, Mr. R. Lynne Hamilton, and Mr. William McCollum. Absent: Mr. James Sayre. Also present were Superintendent Kaulitz, Director of Business Affairs Von Destimon, Director of Personnel Kohr, and Director of Instruction Brown.

President Hamilton called the meeting to order at 8:05 p.m.

The minutes of the regular meeting of October 14, 1974 and special meetings of September 29, 1974 and November 4, 1974 were reviewed and ordered placed on file as printed.

Resolution authorizing $4,000,000. bond issue for construction of elementary buildings was discussed. Motion by McCollum, supported by Bos, that the resolution be approved as presented. Roll call vote: Ayes: McCollum, Muse, Roe, Cook, Bos, and Hamilton. Nays: None. Absent: Sayre. Motion carried.

Mr. Brown discussed the proposed new Business Education program in Clerical and Secretarial Lab a State reimbursed program. Approval has been given by the State for two office education programs. We are not eligible for funds for equipment for the Stenographic program because it was an already existing program, but since the Clerical and Secretarial Lab is a new program to our schools, we are eligible for 50 percent reimbursement for the purchase of equipment for this program. Minimum cost for equipment is $29,400. with State approval of $14,700. in funds. Motion by Muse, supported by Roe, to approve request for funds for program as presented. Motion carried.

Mr. Brown also discussed the need for audio-visual equipment and a preventative maintenance program. After considerable discussion, request was referred to the Secondary Education Committee, Elementary Education Committee, and Buildings & Grounds Committee to meet with Mr. Brown and Mr. Peck for further study and to bring recommendations back to the Board.

On recommendation of the administration, motion by Roe, supported by Cook, that:

Judith Honhart, teacher, Haggerty Elementary School, be granted termination of her contract effective October 24, 1974;

Susan Doud, teacher, West Willow Elementary School, be granted termination of her contract effective November 8, 1974;

Nancy Haynes be hired as an Elementary Strings teacher for the 1974-75 school year beginning November 18, 1974;

Sharon Bialke be hired as a teacher for West Willow Elementary School for the 1974-75 school year beginning November 11, 1974, Motion carried.

Mr. Kohr also discussed the need to increase our substitute teacher pay. Motion by McCollum, supported by Muse, that our substitute teacher pay be increased to $28.00 per day and $32.00 per day after twenty consecutive days to become effective November 18, 1974. Motion carried.

The bills for the month of October were reviewed. Motion by Roe, supported by Cook, that the bills be paid as presented. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned at 10:05 p.m.

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP BOARD MINUTES

Meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Supervisor Gollwitzer called the meeting to order at 7:30 P.M. Members present were: Supervisor Gollwitzer, Clerk Cullin, Treasurer York, and Trustees Domen, Kureth, Kelly and Maton. Also present were: Attorney Axe (arrived at 7:35 PM), Engineer Kelley, Sec'y. Soja and 17 interested citizens.

Motion Maton, support Kelly, to accept the minutes of the regular meeting of November 26 as presented. Carried. Supervisor Gollwitzer informed the Board that he allowed the upstairs of the old Township Hall to be used by Santa. Domen said the upstairs is in good shape but not heated. Motion Domen, support Cullin, to accept the appointments of John Willet, Robert Beck, George Heifner, Stephen Kuchta and Jerry Maton to the Police, Fire & Safety Study Committee. Maton to be Chairman. Carried.

Motion Cullin, support York, to award the bid on the Bemis Road waterline to the lowest bidder (G.G.L. Construction at $75,001.50) if he can meet the requirements within the time limits specified and if not met then award the bid to the second lowest bidder (A-Bird Const.). Carried. Kelly questioned whether it would be cheaper to go with a temporary line at this time. Cullin said Sumpter Twp. would not go along with a temporary line. Mr. Gollwitzer said it is cheaper to build a permanent line the first time.

Supervisor Gollwitzer informed the Board that the labor union hearing was postponed to Dec. 17 at 10 A.M. Motion Cullin, support Kureth, to direct that our labor relations be handled by our Township attorneys firm. Carried.

Motion Cullin, support Kureth, to table the Haggerty Rd. Sewer, Project 3 & 4, and have Engineer Kelley bring the necessary information to the next meeting. Carried.

Motion Kelly, support Cullin, to authorize those Board members who want to attend the Michigan Township Association Annual meeting. Kelly amended his motion to include the Township Attorney. Carried.

Motion Maton, support York, to adopt the 1975 Holiday schedule. Carried.

Motion Kelly, support Cullin, to authorize the Fire Commissioner Kureth to purchase tires and snow tires for the fire truck after getting 3 comparison prices. Carried. Kureth explained that a central radio location is still being researched. Also Chief Gonczy asked that the term "barn" be not used in place of fire station on the radio.

One side of the street parking in Van Buren Estates was discussed. No parking side should be the side where the fire hydrants and mail boxes are located. Motion Cullin, support York, to adopt the resolution as read asking the County Road Commission to restrict and post no parking signs in Van Buren Estates to one side of the street on all principal streets except McBride. Carried. Maton said that Superintendent Kaulitz and the school board were in favor of the resolution for 1 side of the street parking in Van Buren Estates. Clerk Cullin read a letter from the Michigan School Bus Service giving there strong support to the restrictions of parking to one side of the streets. Supervisor Gollwitzer stated that the residents of Van Buren Estates are going to have to co-operate on this matter.

Motion Kureth, support York, to ask the Ordinance officer to get estimated prices on a 1/2 T. & 3/4 T. pick-up to be used as a dog wagon (1974 model preferably because they use regular gas) and a list of equipment and costs needed to equip it for dog wagon purposes and to bring back to the board. Carried.

Motion Kureth, support Kelly, to re-appoint David McMullan, Julia Sawmiller and Manley Baldwin to the Board of Review. Carried.

Motion Kureth, support Kelly, to accept the Bldg. Dept., Dog Wardens, Police, Fire Dept. 1 & 2, General Fund, Revenue Sharing, Lake & Park, Recreation & CETA fund reports as presented. Carried.

The Board members expressed a sincere thanks to the Jay Cees for decorating the out-door Christmas tree in front of the Township Hall.

The Dec. 11 joint meeting of the Planning Commission, Wayne Co. Planning Commission & Van Buren Twp. Board was announced.

The Dec. 12 joint meeting of Ypsi Twp., Ypsi City & Van Buren Twp. in regard to Willow Run Airport was announced.

Attorney Axe announced that the judge ruled in favor of the Township in the Hayden Gregory case. (This was the rezoning of additional property to R-T for G. Roehler's Mobile Home Park).

Attorney Axe announced that our appeal on the El Chonen rezoning on Rawsonville Road was filed with the Supreme Court Dec. 10, 1974.

Motion Domen, support Maton, to approve the voucher lists as submitted. Carried. Maton questioned the $75.00 in lieu of Blue Cross for 3 months.

Mrs. C. Howard, a resident in Van Buren Estates, questioned what happens if the County Road Commission doesn't do anything about the 1 side of the street parking in V.B. Estates. Supervisor Gollwitzer explained all details will have to be worked out with the County Road Commission. Att'y. Axe stated that 48 hour parking signs should be posted to stop extended parking time. Mrs. Albert from the subdivision questioned why the County Road Commission told her they would not come out to the subdivision again, and what is a township road and a county road. Supervisor Gollwitzer said that there is no such road as a township road. They all are county roads to maintain. Mrs. Zoltowski asked if this is not township problem what recourse do the people have. It was explained that the Road Commission members are appointed by the County Commissioners for 6 year terms and the people can call their County Commissioner and complain. It was explained the Road Commission gets their money directly from the state and the state diverted some of the road funds to Metro Airport. Other alternative is the township can become a city and take over its own roads or the state law can be amended to give the roads and funds back to the Township. Mrs. Howard complimented the V.B. Township sanitation department for the fine job they did picking up rubbish during the aftermath of the big snow storm. Clerk Cullen said that the new supervisor of the D.P.W. did a fine job in running his department.

Motion York, support Kelly, to adjourn.

Meeting adjourned at 8:55 P.M.

Respectfully submitted

PATRICIA CULLIN, CLERK

Van Buren Township

Review of Airport Litigation. Superintendent directed to contact City on matter of billings.

Rev

Motion by Budd supported by Chandler that all future dealings with attorneys, expecting regularly appointed school attorneys, hired for specific case or purpose be totally outlined, including fees and charges, and approved by board before inception of action. Motion carried unanimously. 8:00 PM AUDIENCE DISCUSSION:

Peg Ross, Cory Elementary, invited Board and administration to attend Cory Kindergarten annual Thanksgiving Dinner on Wednesday, November 27th at noon. Also, as President of REA asked why Board chose to act on citizens' complaint in a meeting November 20th when it had previously decided there would be no further action until November 25th; and why superintendent's office failed to notify REA with an advance agenda.

Chair answered explaining meeting was called by two (2) board members which is in accordance with school code. Superintendent stated copies of agenda in question sent through school mail.

Mrs. Dorothy Nessler asked what action is being taken re citizens' complaint and if teacher in question will be required to undergo psychological evaluation. Chair stated board would sit as impartial judges at hearing - no answer to question given.

Mrs. Beaman, 34023 Beverly, asked about Jr. High Lunch Program. Asst Supt for M & O explained board has upheld policy now in effect.

Mr. Hurlbut submitted copies of excerpts from book found to be objectionable and which had been brought to attention of board earlier. Superintendent and also Member Chandler spoke to point.

Betty Brewer, 30511 Cherry, asked about possibility of screening all books before placing same in school libraries. Board explained manner of book selection.

Lynne Slaughter asked about charges against teacher in question. Chair stated that minutes of November 20 meeting as approved were the only public information available.

Caroline Workman, 15557 Taft, stated she had read book "Go Ask Alice" and recommended same.

Minister of church at Five Points asked who is in charge of hiring people who distribute material in question.

Airport Litigation continued. Suggested letter be sent to Mr. Fadern requesting outline of future charges. Member Boger suggested that letter include a request that Mr. Fadern repeat fact that should airport authority lose suit it will be responsible for court costs and attorney fees. Consensus that Superintendent contact City to determine how far they are willing to pursue this matter and report on December 9th.

Morris Levine Associates presented blue prints and diagrams of storm sewer drainage system at Merriman Elem. and Merriman Park Site and reviewed same - total cost - $82,000. Board expressed several concerns. Mr. Levine to discuss same with City and schedule a future meeting which board and submitted bill in amount of 75 percent of 9 percent contract.

Motion by Boger supported by Yates to table bill until next meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

Superintendent recommended that Board favorably consider April 14, 1975 for special millage election date. Motion by Christensen supported by Yates that April 14, 1975 be date for special renewal millage election. Motion carried unanimously.

Superintendent will make recommendations to board re additional mills needed to operate new buildings, the first of which should be ready September 1975.

Bid sheets presented re masonry bid on phase 2, No. 10 high - low bidder recommended.

Motion by Budd supported by Yates that masonry bid be awarded to low bidder, Clarence Gleason. Motion carried unanimously.

Recommendation and discussion re transportation for K, 1 and 2nd grade students attending Harrison Elementary. Motion by Budd supported by Bath approving recommendation for busing of Harrison Elementary students. Questions and discussion by board members.

Betty Ross, 2863 Burning Tree, requested permission to address board re busing students to Harrison. Her daughter, a 3rd grader, is now bused. Should board accept recommendation, her daughter will have to walk a distance of 9-10 of a mile and go 1/2 block alone before meeting other children. Discussion brought out that daughter now walks 6-10 of mile*to catch bus. Vote on motion: Ayes: 6. Nays: Boger. Motion carried.

Member Boger's negative vote registered because she cannot see not picking up one third grader.

Board furnished with copy of ad which will appear in local paper re house on Wick Road site.

Superintendent of Schools asked board to inspect classroom equipment available and, if possible act on same.

Motion by Budd supported by Yates to advertise for bids on Heywood Wakefield and Scholcraft classroom furniture. Motion carried unanimously.

Board recessed at 9:57 p.m. and convened in Executive Session at 10:08 p.m.; reconvened in General Session at 10:47 p.m.

Motion by Yates supported by Christensen authorizing 25 cents per hr increase for Outside Security personnel, hall monitors, crossing guards, playground supervisors, lunchroom aides. Ayes: 6. Nays: Chandler. Motion carried.

Ground broken for school

The construction of a new junior high school in the Romulus Community School District officially is underway.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for North Junior

High School, to be built at 37500 Wick Road, Romulus, were held last Saturday morning with members of the Romulus Board of Education and other school officials in attendance.

The junior high school is being constructed adjacent to the new Wick Road Elementary School, where construction began some weeks ago.

When completed both schools will relieve current crowded classrooms in both the elementary and secondary levels, school officials said.

Funds from an $11,500,000 bond issue approved the voters in June 1973 will be used to finance construction costs.

The new 2-story junior high school will provide space for 1,000 students.

There will be 40 classrooms in addition to a library-media center, administration area, counseling and guidance area, food service-cafeteria, staff lounge and a large group instruction area.

The planned outside play area, according to designs for the new school, will include a football and soccer field, quarter-mile track, baseball and softball diamonds and tennis courts.

The dining area in the new school will handle 350 students or 250 adults.

The total floor space of the new junior high school is 80,658 square feet including 2,880 square feet for special education programs.

Attending the groundbreaking ceremonies were

Carl W. Morris, president of the Romulus Board of Education, Ronald Christensen, board vice-president; Gloria Chandler, Gerald Budd and Jack Bath, board trustees; and Hulen Yates, board treasurer.

Charles Sherman of Sherman & Associates, Inc., school architects, also was present.

Youth, 13, dies in gun mishap

A 13-year-old Belleville area youth recently was killed when a souvenir sawed-off shotgun "accidentally" was discharged, according to Wayne County Sheriff's detectives.

Funeral services for the dead youth—identified as David Jackson, the son of Rudy and the late Dorothy Jackson of 6941 S. Haggerty Road, Belleville—were held at 2 p.m. Thursday at Lents Funeral Home in Wayne. Burial services were conducted at the Glenwood Cemetery, also in Wayne. Det. John Wotring of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department said David was killed last Monday when a sawed-off shotgun was being passed among three youths. "Apparently, the youths were across the street from David's house," he said.

"They were passing around the gun when one of them, a 16-year-old, somehow racked a shell and the gun went off. David was killed instantly from a wound in the neck." The two boys were lifelong friends, Wotring added.

The gun was obtained from a relative of one of the youths, according to the detective.

"The weapon was illegal in Michigan," he added. "It may have been defective, so no one knew it was loaded."

Old newsboys top $1,000 sale mark

Proceeds collected by the Romulus Goodfellow in their newspaper sale drive last Saturday topped the $1,000 mark, practically doubling the 1973 total, according to the drive's chairman, Fred Williams.

"We did pretty well but not as well as expected," he we received for a newspaper was 50 cents, which is lower than last year's average of $1.50.

"We're glad that we did as well as we did, though," he added.

The Goodfellows were stationed at 12 street locations around the city, urging motorists to give a donation in exchange for a copy of the special Goodfellow Edition newspaper.

Scouting skaters have fun

A recent night of roller skating sponsored by Girl Scout Troop 683 and Cub Scout Pack 739 of Merriman Road Elementary School in Romulus attracted 165 scouts, parents and guests.

The roller skating party was held at the Mayflower Roller Rink, located at 15064 Middlebelt Road.

Our readers write

By TOM MOORADIAN

Now that the record snows have melted and the mail has made it to our desk, let's see what the folks out there have to say.

Dear Tom,
I see by one of your columns you have survived nine years of pounding the beat.

Congratulations.
Anyone who can cover sports that many years must either be tough-skinned or just one heck of a guy. And I believe you fall into the second category.

Anyway, if you ever find the time for a lunch break, don't forget us out here at Detroit Race Course. We enjoy good company and good reading.

Seasons' greetings to you and all of the folks at the Eagle.

Sincerely,
Ken Christopher,
DRC

Dear Ken,
Thanks. And isn't it wonderful to have time to write letters? Just wait till February when that track over there opens.

Dear Mr. Mooradian,
In the past you have written that, in your opinion, there is no such thing as a minor sport. Well, it appears that high school golf and golfers are getting a second rate treatment from you and the newspaper.

How come the All-Area football and cross country teams were given recognition but not the golf team. I think we deserved as much, if not more than they.

In football the players get the applause and recognition from the fans, we don't have that in high school golf.

I feel you are doing us an injustice. I feel the boys who made the team should be given recognition.

Thank you for taking time out and reading this letter.

A golf fan
P.S. Please withhold my name for obvious reasons.

Dear Obvious Reasons,
You're right. We have been delinquent in our job. And the golfers who earned All-Area honors should have received recognition with the other fall sports.

As I had earlier pointed out, we're trying to come up with the candidates but are being stymied because the Garden City School District has a strike on its hands.

We hope to have the team picked before the end of the week and the boys in for photos then.

Sorry about the delay.

Dear Mr. Mooradian
Where is the hockey news in the Eagle these days? In the past we looked forward to the coverage, but, except for a few introductory stories there hasn't been anything about our games.

Has hockey fallen from your good grace. We need coverage just like any other sport, so if there is anything we can do to help, let us know.

Truly yours,
Dave Roberts
Westland

Dear Dave,
The way to get on these pages is either by phoning in the information or dropping off the scores. No way can I personally cover the Wayne Hockey League, the Westland Hockey League and the Garden City Athletic Association Hockey Leagues.

The sports meridian

And here's another letter from a District Court judge. No, it isn't a subpoena, just a writ of congratulations.

Dear Tom:
Congratulations to you as you finish your ninth year as Sport's Editor of the Daily Eagle.

As one who reads your column on a regular basis, I feel that you have done a fine job of reporting the sports news during the last nine years.

Best wishes to you as you begin your tenth year and I hope you stay around for another twenty.

Very truly yours,
Michael W. Bradley
District Judge

Tiger streak ends at 4

Belleville loses to Salem

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Belleville cagers can't say they didn't have their chance at staying atop of the Suburban 8 Conference standings. They were right there last Tuesday when Coach Tom Niemi's minions trampled Dearborn Edsel Ford 71-50.

But, on Saturday, a second half slump cost them their four-game winning streak, a share of first place and their first setback as Plymouth Salem, the once-defeated defending champ rallied to a 73-57 victory over the Tigers.

"We had a shot at it and ran out of gas," said Niemi whose team will break for the Christmas Holidays and won't see action again until Dec. 27 when they compete the Wayne Holiday Tournament.

PLYMOUTH, which dropped a cliffhanger, 79-78, to Livonia Bentley last Tuesday, had its problems in the first half as Belleville outscored its hosts 19-16 the first eight minutes of the game.

Though the Rocks came back to a 14-13 second period, Belleville still clung to a 32-30 halftime advantage.

However, the visitors lost control of the lead in the third period as Plymouth's superior eight began paying off under the boards. The champs went on to beat the Tigers 19-12 and 24-13 the last two periods.

REMINISCING-What started here early in December with an impressive Belleville victory over Ypsilanti ended Saturday night at Plymouth Salem where the defending Suburban 8 Conference champs broke the Tigers' four game winning streak and handed Coach Tom Niemi's contingent their first setback of the current campaign. Belleville will return to the court after the Christmas Holidays when it will shoot for the Wayne Memorial Holiday Tournament crown on Dec. 27-28. The Tigers drew John Glenn in the first round game scheduled for 6 p.m.

Belleville swimmers nipped by Cherry Hill

Despite outstanding performances by Mark Stoelton and Arlo Liebler, Belleville suffered its first dual meet setback of the season last Tuesday at Cherry Hill.

Coach Sam Vicchy's Tigers bowed to their nonleague rivals by the narrowest margins, 87-85.

Stoelton provided Belleville with two of its five first places. He touched in first in the 50-yard freestyle (24.1) and also finished ahead of the field in the 100-yard freestyle (54.4).

LIEBELER, who set a record last year to win All-Area recognition as a diver, amassed a total of 201.14 points to easily top Cherry Hill's Craig Siemieniak.

Paul Wanshon's 1:10.0 for the 100-yard breaststroke and the Tigers' 400-yard freestyle relay team of Jeff Fogarty, Dave Hamilton, Steve Lehman and Dave Barber also placed first.

Tiger grapplers win triple dual

With one stroke, Belleville wrestlers downed three nonleague rivals last week.

Coach Gerald Malecek's grapplers finished atop of a triple dual meet by amassing 110 points, beating Lake Fenton (96), Chelsea (78), and Albion (46).

"The kids look good," said Malecek who is entering his third year as the Belleville mentor. "We're a young team, sporting only three senior wrestlers - Rick Bracken, Steve Wilson and Randy Calhoun - in our lineup and we will be stronger than we were a year ago."

However, Malecek pointed out that he expected the Suburban 8 Conference to have more balance than it did a year ago.

"WE FINISHED fourth last year," he said, "and we hope to do better, but Plymouth, Trenton, Redford Union and Edsel Ford are also stronger and the competition is going to be tougher in the league, believe me."

Belleville launched the league campaign with a surprisingly easy 32-19 victory over Edsel. Greg Johnson (98), Randy Calhoun (155) and Randy Slocum (185) provided the Tigers with six-point (via falls) victories.

Johnson and Dan Porter (132) have already compiled impressive 10-0 records for themselves by winning three matches at the triple dual. Slocum (185) also won all three of his bouts.

Steve Harsch (105), Doug Bogardus (118), Steve Wilson (126), Bracken (138), George Jarvis (145) each had two wins while Mike Mlsna (1-1-1) and Chuck Brezeale won one and was presented another victory when the opposition forfeited.

Cougars elect new officers

Brian Fry was elected as president of the board of directors for the Belleville Cougars, an organization that fields little league football teams in the Western Suburban Conference.

Other officers include: Keith Brinkerhoff (vice-president), Gloria Traskos (secretary), Diana Villa, (treasurer), Doug Traskos (unit director), R. Goins (assistant), Mike Smolen (equipment manager), Fred O'Keefe (assistant).

Special events will be handled by Elmer Memering (50-50 tickets), Harlen Meister (candy chairman), Dave Samsel (assistant), Connie Brinkerhoff (cheerleading) and Dianna McDaniel (publicity).

THE EASLEY brothers - Walt and Dennis - accounted for 34 of the Tiger points. Dennis, the younger of the two, drilled in seven field goals and five free throws for 19 points, while Walt pumped in seven baskets and a free throw for 15.

Eric Agardy, Salem's 6-10 senior center, led the field with 21 points. Sixteen of those points were in the second half.

The Rocks also realized 28 of 65 from the field for 43 percent, while Belleville had 22 of 61, 34 percent. The Tigers canned 13 of 27 offerings from the free throw line as compared to the Rocks' 17 of 24 output.

Earlier in the week Belleville had little problem with Edsel Ford, racing

Suburban 8 names top gal cagers

Redford Union, the reigning Suburban 8 Conference girls basketball champ, and Trenton, the runnerup, claimed two berths apiece on the all-conference first team.

Linda Kosobac and Amy Gierak were drafted from R.U., while Diane Deller and Kathy Seneski made it from Trenton.

The fifth member of the coveted team is Plymouth's Barb Croci.

Cindy Siterlet (Plymouth), Molly Meade (Plymouth), Cindy Rossi (Redford Union), Theresa Bucan (Allen Park) and Peggy Moore (Plymouth) were selected to the second team.

Belleville's Kathy Berbee, Satina Carter and Sharon Crane were awarded honorable mention.

from a 16-8 first period to a 44-20 halftime vantage. Though the T-Birds came back to outscore their visitors 17-6 in the third period, Belleville's sharpshooters replied with a 23-12 edge from the field in the finale.

It's getting to be the time of "year of icy sidewalks and drafty necks. And it's about time to start planning a nice warm escape. Like Nassau. Warm, foreign and only 2 1/2 hours away. What more could you want except a good deal in the price?

Air Jamaica has put together a few good deals into one booklet. For instance, only $193* can fly you there and back, give you 4 days and 3 nights in a hotel and a lot of special extras like complimentary tennis courts and a Sound and Light Show. If you want to stay longer, we have 8-day packages starting as low as $237*.

Nassau days are filled with swimming, water skiing, snorkeling. If you ever get off the beach, there's golf and tennis, shopping for duty-free treasures or snapping up pictures of old forts.

Nassau nights are filled with duck à l'orange, steel bands and calypso and an elegant gambling casino where, if you're lucky, you could win enough for a return trip.

Air Jamaica flights are filled with Reggae music and island warmth. You'll enjoy a refreshing Rum Bamboozle, free to all passengers, and the only fashion show in flight modelled by our Rare Tropical Birds.

For more information about what you'll get, send for our free booklet. But send soon because these packages are only available through December 15th. And that's just around the corner too.

ME TOO, SANTA — While one little girl is lucky enough to get a warm hug from her Christmas hero, several other eager children ask for similar attention from Santa Claus. The jolly old elf swooped into Romulus last week for a pre-Christmas visit with members of the Romulus Library's pre-school story hour class. — The Enterprise-Roman photo.

Program benefits colleges

Eighteen Michigan colleges and universities received $12,432.05 in 1974 under Aetna Life & Casualty's aid to higher education program. Aetna's share was $5,856.65, supplementing agent and employee gifts of $6,575.40 to the Michigan institutions. The state's largest combined company and employee contribution of $2,750 went to Duns Scotus College. The Michigan grants are part of $395,772 contributed to 500 schools in 47 states under Aetna's program this year.

Road, will hold Christmas worship at 10 a.m. Sunday. The Rev. Robert D. Dobson, pastor, will preach from a text of the gospel of St. Luke, "She Gave Birth to her First Son." A special solo, "The People that Walked in Darkness," by Handel, will be sung by Walter Johnson. In addition, the sanctuary choir will sing, "Carol of the Bells." On Christmas Eve, there will be one family service at 7:30 p.m. It will be celebrated as a Christmas party for Jesus and will include a special anthem by the youth choir and the sanctuary choir. A special solo, "A LaNanita Nana" will be sung by Ethelyn Dittmar. The Rev. Dobson will preach a short message, the Christmas scriptures will be read and there will be open Holy Communion during which Christmas carols will be sung. The service will end with a candlelight recessional during the singing of "Silent Night, Holy Night."

Former resident wants addresses

A former Belleville resident who currently lives in a Port Huron nursing home this week issued an appeal for the home addresses of her many Belleville area friends. She is Julia Dean, 87, who presently resides in the Marwood Manor of Port Huron. Mrs. Dean, whose husband, Vern, passed away several years ago, told a recent visitor from Belleville that she lost her "precious" address book and would appreciate her Belleville friends writing to send along their home address so she can continue her correspondence with them. She is a victim of a stroke that occurred when she was 65 years old. Mrs. Dean also broke an arm during a fall in the recent blackout in the City of Port Huron, it was stated.

Foreign educator talks to students

A foreign curriculum consultant from the Wayne County Intermediate School District recently was the featured speaker before three reading groups at Merriman Road Elementary School in Romulus. The speaker was Dr. Christian Ayisi from Adukrom, Ghana, noted educator and lecturer. Ayisi, according to school principal Harold Connors, gave an enlightened talk with slides to reading groups supervised by teachers Mary Peterson, Jesse Simmons and Mabel Stevenson. The lecture and question-and-answer period helped the students to better understand and appreciate another culture. Ayisi also is a senior lecturer at the University of Cape Coast, Ghana.

NOW SOMETHING FOR DAD — Those men are always the hardest to buy for but Cheryl Slusarczyk (front, left) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Slusarczyk of 975 Sumpter Rd., Belleville, had plenty of help making her selection. She didn't have to bundle up for the weather or even worry about a ride to some nearby shopping center. Everything was right there at her school — Elwell Elementary — for her and her classmates to choose from. "Christmas Shopping at School Week", the brainchild of Georginna Warrens (right), was proposed at the Elwell PTO meeting and she, of course, won the chairmanship as her idea was adopted. So all last week the student body had the fun and convenience of choosing those important gifts right in the halls of learning. Another parent volunteer Sylvia Weedon is pictured at back left.

Christmas shop at school? That's what Elwell kids did

It wasn't December 25th; it was only Monday, December 9th, yet the Christmas spirit prevailed in the halls of Elwell Elementary. What was the reason? Why, it was "Christmas Shopping at School Week," of course.

There was an idea! Why not have the children do their Christmas shopping right at school? That was the way Georginna Warrens proposed the idea to the Elwell Elementary PTO. Of course when you make a proposal such as this you automatically win the job as the chairman of the activity.

The purpose of the plan was to give the children a chance to purchase inexpensive items as Christmas gifts for their families. All items were sold at cost. The main idea was not to make money but to provide a service to the Elwell community.

So Mrs. Warren (with the help of her assistant Charlotte Santure) traveled to Monroe to pick out a selection of gifts. They then sent out a plea to the parents to help staff the sale and to provide wrapping paper. The response was overwhelming with 20 parents volunteering to work and voluminous amounts of paper flowing into the school.

Monday, was designated as "look day." The children were provided when the week of the sale arrived, with shopping lists and an opportunity to see the items on display. Tuesday through Thursday were the main shopping days. Friday morning was designated as "make-up day."

The response was more than anyone had anticipated. By Tuesday afternoon the tables were half bare, so Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Santure collected their wits, made a quick decision and hurried to Monroe for more gifts. As unbelievable as it may seem they ended up making still another trip Wednesday.

Was the sale a success? If you judge it in terms of profit, no. However if you judge it in terms of providing a community service, helping children, and providing goodwill, yes.

The children and staff of Elwell School expressed their gratitude to Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Santure for the many hours they devoted to making the holiday sale a success. They also recognize the work put in by other members of the "staff": Kathy Banotai, Sue Wysocki, Sylvia Weedon, Patsy Burke, Sophia Loyer, Joan Hartwell and Ann Whitt.

Still others who assisted were Shirley Shelby, Doris Dellar, Beverly Kublinski, Gaye Mc Neil, Ethel Faust, Mary Savitski, Shirley Pluff, Joan Osborne, Faythe Schellenberger and Sandi Dingman.

Completing the list were Sharon Ducey, Sharon Dubisky, Alice Jessing, Judy Smith, Mary Korgal, Sharon Chobot, Judy Bowles, Linda Davis, Carol Sturtz, Gloria Similo, Nancy La Porte, Beverly Kopsolias, Rosalie Vickery and Mary Fancher.

Andrea's birthday calls for cake 'n ice cream

By Mrs. Joseph Spring
699-4021

In celebration of their daughter Andrea's fourth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Potts of E. Huron River Drive, Belleville, entertained on Sunday, Dec. 8, Andrea's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Svmanky of Edwards Road and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Potts of Wabash Street for ice cream and birthday cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Potts of St. Charles, Ill., are announcing the birth of their first child, a baby girl, born on Dec. 8, weight 11 lbs., 5 oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gary Potts of St. Charles and the great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Potts of Wabash Street, Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller of Colon were callers on Saturday of last week at the Belleville home of the Norman Millers of Second St.

After having been a patient at the University of Michigan Medical Center for the past two weeks, Frank Hoag was able to return to his home on Liberty Street, Belleville, Dec. 6.

Mrs. Frank Hoag of Liberty Street, Belleville, spent several days last week with her son Donald and family at Jackson.

On Sunday of last week Mrs. Elda Bohl of Robson Road attended the annual Christmas party of the Koken-Sherf Club at the Masonic Temple in Linden.

Guests this past week at the Liberty Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fry were the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fry from Oscoda. They left last Friday for an extended trip through the southern states.

Mrs. William Jenkins of Clarence Street had the misfortune to fall last week and fracture her left hand.

Mrs. Alma Ard of Main Street, Belleville, Mother of Mrs. William (Frances), Kirchner, underwent major surgery at Beyer Hospital on Dec. 12.

After having spent the past two weeks with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walker of Fremont, Ohio, Mrs. Hazel Bryan returned to her home on Wabash Street on Friday.

Mrs. Stanley (Merle) Miller, formerly of Torrey Road, Milan, is now residing at Roselawn Manor, Room 332, 707 Armstrong Rd., Lansing, 48910. She would be pleased to hear from friends.

Home Arts Club gathers for holiday-time festivities

The Home Arts Club of Belleville held its annual Christmas party Dec. 9 at the holiday-decorated home of Virginia Turney on Elwell Road. Open to members only, the group of 20 enjoyed an evening of progressive bunco with awards being won by Betty Gott, Eula Haft and Sherry Budd. The door prize went to Betty Vincent, a former member who recently rejoined the club.

The executive board was in charge of the activities, decorations and refreshments. Club president Sharon Matthews was assisted by Mildred Baker, vice president; Muriel Wolfe, recording secretary; Angela Hampton, corresponding secretary; Jean Ferguson, treasurer, and program chairman, Mrs. Turney.

For the gift exchange, the group moved from the family room to the living room where soft lights and a glowing fire set a Christmas mood. Members were asked to bring something they had made in lieu of the usual dollar gift and a variety of items were opened such as hand-knit slippers, aprons, crocheted hangers, hand-made wall plaques, tin flowers, cookies, jam and muffin dough all in pretty containers, beet pickles and brown bread.

All the necessary ingredients for do-it-yourself salad bar were prepared for the group's selection. As they returned to the family room, they found tables covered with bright red cloths and centered with holiday candle centerpieces.

New grandchildren weigh in identically

Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. St. Pierre of Dellor Road, Belleville, are announcing the birth of their first two grandchildren who were born a month apart and almost a country apart.

Kelee Beatrice is newest Hudson

There'll be four to share the holiday festivities this year at the home of Tom and Kathy Hudson at 19680 Crandell Ct., Belleville. The new addition is Kelee Beatrice, their 9 lb., 14 oz. daughter who arrived Dec. 4 at Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti.

Their second child, she is the little sister of three-year old Paul Thomas. Named for her two grandmothers, Kelee is the granddaughter of Paul Hudson of Belleville and Mrs. Beatrice Gannon of Dorchester, Mass.

Making her debut in Coos Bay, Ore. was a baby girl born Sept. 29 to Dave and Cheryl Findley, formerly of Belleville. She was named Inci.

The second arrival, a baby boy, was born Oct. 25 at Women's Hospital in Ann Arbor to Jeff and Kim Kinzinger of McBride Street, Belleville. Titled Brian Donald, the infant was baptized Nov. 24 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Belleville.

Both grandchildren had identical birth weights of 7 lbs., 14 oz.

For growing children

Measure to fit clothes

"Buy your children's clothing according to their height and weight, not their age," recommends a Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service clothing specialist. Children always are changing shape so it isn't easy buying clothing for them. A proper fit is needed for comfort, freedom of movement, safety and appearance.

Taking correct body measurements is helpful when buying clothing. Take measurements often to keep up with child's present size. Chest, waist and hip measurements help determine if a child needs garments cut for slim or chubby figure types.

SHE ALSO offers a few tips on taking measurements. Measure over lightweight, close-fitting underwear. Hold tape snugly, but not tight. Measure height from floor to top of head. Have child stand, without shoes, against a wall and place a flat object level with the top of his head.

Measure chest or bust, underarms around the fullest part of chest or bust.

MEASURE WAIST around the child's natural waistline. To find this, have the child bend to the side. The point at which the body indents is the natural waistline.

Measure hips around fullest part.

Measure inseam along the inside seam of a pair of well-fitting pants. Lay pants flat on a table. Fold back on leg. Measure along the inseam starting at the crotch to the bottom of the cuff.

Weigh child on accurate scales.

Bring your child's measurements along when shopping for clothes. If measurements fall within two sizes, select the larger size.

Czaplicki-Sopha vows exchanged at Baptist church

The newly wed Alan Lee Czaplicki are making their home at 13664 Lennox Rd., Belleville, since their Nov. 23 wedding at Metro Baptist Temple in Belleville. The couple honeymooned in Michigan for four days prior to the move.

Susan Marie Sopha, the daughter of Raymond C. Sopha of 47691 W. Huron River Dr., Belleville, became Mrs. Czaplicki in a 7 p.m. ceremony attended by some 70 relatives and friends.

Mrs. James Southward of Belleville was organist and also sang "The Wedding Song."

THE REV. John Vaprezen presided at the double ring rite before an altar aglow with candlelight.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose to wear her late mother's 30-year old satin wedding gown. Styled with embroidered flowers on a square neckline and long tapered sleeves, the bodice was attached to a slightly flared skirt accented with matching embroidery.

A Juliet cap of pearl flowers held her cathedral-length veil and an arrangement of cascading spider mums and ferns atop a Bible completed her ensemble.

Mrs. David Snyder of E. Detroit was her sister's honor attendant in a pale green gown patterned in the empire mode with lace inserts on the sleeves and neckline. Her matching headpiece of green pearls and satin held a shoulder-length veil. She and the two bridesmaids carried white King James Bibles and wore wrist corsages to match their dresses.

MRS. CALVIN Tarasher of Ferndale, the bride's best friend, and Faith Rouser of Clinton wore pale pink costumes to match that worn by the matron of honor.

Five-year old Tamar Snyder filled the role of flowergirl in a miniature version of the senior attendants' frocks. Her brother, Timothy, 6, carried out the duties of ringbearer. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. David Snyder of E. Detroit.

The bridegroom, the son of Mrs. Dalbert Tallman of 511 Sunset Dr., Clinton, asked Michael Aimone of Laurium, Mich. to be best man. Ushers were Kenneth Barks of Belleville and David Snyder of E. Detroit.

At the reception which followed, the bridegroom's mother greeted guests in a long blue, red and white formal gown to which she pinned her corsage of white mums.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Belleville High School and he is employed at the Wayne Ford Assembly plant.

MR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS F. STAFFELD

Newly wed Staffelds now living in Belleville

A week-long honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania followed the autumn wedding of Janet Marie Popich and Douglas Fred Staffeld, both of Romulus. Since their return the newlyweds have made their home at 41275 Riggs Rd., Belleville.

Carrying a bouquet of cascading white carnations and yellow sweetheart roses, the bride walked mid-way up the aisle to meet her waiting bridegroom. For her wedding day, she chose to wear a gown of organza and chiffon patterned in the A-line mode with long, full sleeves, high neckline and paneled train. Adding contrast to the dress was yellow ribbon woven through lace to form a V on the bodice and to accent the sleeves and skirt.

Her floor-length illusion veil drifted from a little cap of daisies to cover the chapel train.

THE REV. Alvin Kauffman and the Rev. Alexander Wytswal presided at the 5 p.m. nuptials at St. Stephen's Catholic Church in New Boston. Two large baskets of yellow and white mums adorned the altar for the double ring rite.

Julie Mick of Romulus, the bride's cousin, sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "Ave Maria."

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Adolph F. Popich of 16250 Wahrman Rd., Romulus, and the late Mr. Popich. Her bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Melvin F. Staffeld of 7277 Middlebelt Rd., Romulus, and the late Mr. Staffeld.

As her sister's honor attendant, Patricia J. Schmoekel of Belleville donned a yellow knit gown trimmed with white daisies and a ruffled flounce at the hemline. She wore daisies in her hair and carried white pom pom mums and baby's breath tied with yellow and white gingham streamers to match the jackets worn by the groomsmen.

BRIDESMAIDS in identical costumes were Nancy Popich of Romulus and Carol Sell of Ypsilanti, also sisters of the bride, and Holly Morris of Taylor.

Assisting as best man was Gary M. Staffeld of Romulus, brother of the bridegroom. Others on the esquire side were Alan, Roy and Kevin Staffeld, all brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Popich donned a floor-length turquoise gown with a white lace overlay. Mrs. Staffeld chose a pale pink polyester gown for the occasion. Both mothers were presented with corsages of pink sweetheart roses and pink-tipped white carnations.

The Carawee Hall in Flat Rock was reserved for the reception which followed. Some 250 guests attended from Texas, Pennsylvania and area cities.

CURRENTLY employed as a secretary at Kelsey-Hayes in Romulus, the new Mrs. Staffeld is a 1971 graduate of Romulus High School. Her husband, a 1970 alumnus of Romulus High, graduated from Henry Ford Community College and is presently attending Eastern Michigan University. He is employed as a technician at the Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn.

The bridegroom's mother entertained at the rehearsal dinner at Debbie's Restaurant in Lincoln Park.

Stay slim during the holidays the 'Weight Watchers' way

If you've been trying to get back into that evening gown or favorite suit that doesn't fit you like it did last holiday season, then take heed!

Florine Mark, area president of Weight Watchers of Eastern Michigan, Inc., has some tips on how to lose weight and look your best during this season and throughout the New Year.

"In my many years of involvement with weight reduction and control," said Florine, "many Weight Watchers members have shared with me their secrets on 'surviving' the holidays without adding an extra pound to their frames!"

"These ideas have helped me, and I know they will help everyone who is interested in losing weight," she said.

Ready? Here are some of the best:

Never sit near the food or drinks at a party.

Always wear your tightest-fitting clothes to parties; avoid split seams by avoiding the food.

Remember this time-worn adage: "I'm not in the mood to chew this food!"

When arriving at a party, proceed immediately toward the mistletoe; station yourself under the mistletoe, and remain there throughout the entire evening, kissing and carrying on. There are other things to do with your mouth besides eating!

Remember the "a la mode" and how guilty you felt the last time you ate it!

Throw your own party and prepare a nutritious and non-fattening buffet.

Eat only those foods which begin with the letter "X" — which leaves you with one alternative: Xiphosuran, a delicious variety of the horseshoe crab! However, x-clude all Xmas cookies and Xmas candies.

But, if all these hints fail, and your determination to lose weight is still waning, don't despair. Come to a Weight Watchers meeting. Learn the right way to eat, lose weight...and keep it off for good!

Romulus Sr. Citizens elect 1975 officers

The Romulus Senior Citizens Club has chalked up two more events for their club history book — the traditional Thanksgiving dinner they shared and the recent bazaar they sponsored at Metro Mall in Wayne. The group wishes to thank all who participated in the latter event.

At the Dec. 10 meeting, election of officers resulted in Celeste Fisher being named president and Hazel Miller, vice president. Other officers retaining their positions were Sadye Sumter, recording secretary; Melissa Belle, social secretary; Leona Love, membership secretary, and Cecelia Renke, treasurer.

In lieu of the usual $2 gift exchange, the club voted to donate the money to the Goodfellows to use for Christmas baskets.

A guest and speaker at the meeting was Romulus Mayor Terry Troutt who informed the group they could hold future meetings at the Romulus VFW Hall on Huron River Drive from now on since the quarters they had been using had proved inadequate.

Today (Dec. 18) the group was to have its annual Christmas dinner at the Sveden House in Allen Park.

Belleville OES group at reception

Several members of Belleville Chapter No. 73, Order Eastern Star, attended a dinner and reception for Robert Hayes, Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, at the Grand Blanc Country Club on Dec. 8. Past Matrons Edna Florian and Elda Bohl, Past Patron Vincent Goodnuff, and Associate Matron Leonore Gaddy of Romulus, represented Belleville.

'Heritage' is the topic at HV Garden Club

The Dec. 9 meeting of the Huron Valley Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Smith on Expressway Drive, Belleville. The hostess welcomed 18 members to her festively decorated home.

In the absence of the president, the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Adger Wall. Mrs. Donald Carlson, program chairman, had asked each member to bring an item depicting her heritage with many bringing cookies made from a favorite family recipe.

Following a discussion of heritage, cookies, tea and coffee were served, with Mrs. Olin Wyman pouring at a table centered with an arrangement of red carnations and holly with silver accents.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 6 at the home of Mrs. Rose Vincent on E. Huron River Drive. The program will be on consumer affairs with Bobbie Kelley of Chatham Supermarkets as guest speaker.

Rainbow Girls attend Orange Ray Assembly

Nine members of Belleville Assembly No. 49, Rainbow for Girls, attended the Orange Ray Assembly held at Dearborn Assembly No. 3 on Nov. 29, for dinner and initiation. Belleville girls who were chosen to take part were Roberta Welt, nature, and Patricia Flanagan, drill leader. The girls were accompanied by Mother Advisor, Mrs. Robert Welt, and Mrs. Robert Collins.

On Saturday evening Grand Treasurer, Denise Welt, accompanied by her parents, attended a reception for Grand Officers and a Majority Service at Jackson Assembly No. 7, Rainbow for Girls.

HAROLD REDISKE, HAROLD REDISKE, JR. - DIRECTORS

Did you know the Puritans (of all people!) tried to outlaw Christmas? They wrote a law in 1659 - "Whosoever shall be found observing any such day as Christmas and the like either by forbearing labor, feasting or in any other way - shall pay for each offense five shillings as a fine to the country." The law was ineffective. Fines were plentiful and a few years later the law was voided. The Puritans simply refused to forego the pleasures of Christmas.

Even in those early days the Puritans believed in the thought later expressed by Henry Van Dyke in his writing "The Spirit of Christmas" ... "We are thinking of you today BECAUSE IT IS CHRISTMAS and tomorrow because it will be the day after, and so on through the year. We may not be able to tell you about it every day, but that makes no difference, the thought and the wish will be here just the same."

Wouldn't it be a wonderful world if people everywhere lived a life compatible with a meaning of - BECAUSE IT IS CHRISTMAS?

A flock for feasting

Brighten Yule meal with different poultry

It's time for a Christmas tree and mistletoe, time to deck the halls with boughs of holly. Children have giddy secrets and parents mysterious shopping errands.

It's the most exciting holiday of the year and time for the most lavish feasting.

If this is the year you want a main course that's a little different, yet fits in with holiday tradition, serve up a platter of cornish game hens, capon, turkey or duck.

Traditionalists generally prefer to stick to turkey. And with the dressing for the holiday bird all important, the holiday routine may become the same thing year after year.

If you plan on serving poultry for the holiday meal try stuffing your bird or birds with a combination of bread stuffing, rice, chopped orange and orange juice. Then use the juice as a glaze to the fowl.

Roast capon is perfect for the smaller Christmas dinner, since it serves six to eight people. Try a mixture of orange juice, slivered orange peel, dates and pecans added to prepared stuffing.

If you serve the game hens, a miniature of its larger cousins, plan on one bird per person. Because they are so small and tender, they require less cooking time than other poultry.

The hens will look plumper and prettier with a little stuffing. Chopped apple and orange and grapefruit sections added to the stuffing mixture provides a fine dressing.

Glaze them with orange concentrate for an appetizing, gleaming look and serve with a sauce made of orange juice and cranberry-orange relish.

All your Christmas dishes will have family and friends raving about your gourmet cooking.

1 qt. chilled orange and grapefruit sections, drained
2 cups finely chopped apple
1 cup prepared stuffing mix
1 tablespoon parsley flakes
1/4 cup honey
6 tablespoons (1/2 6-oz. can) frozen concentrated orange juice thawed, undiluted Sprinkle body cavities of hens with salt and pepper. For stuffing, combine remaining ingredients, except orange concentrate. Divide stuffing mixture among prepared hens. Hook wing tips into back to hold skin over neck opening. Truss back opening or secure with metal skewers. Place hens, breast side up, in foil-lined roasting pan. Roast in 325 degree oven for 1 1/2 hours. During last 30 minutes, baste every 10 minutes with orange concentrate to glaze. Garnish with orange wedges and watercress, if desired. Serve with Orange Cornish Sauce. Yields eight servings.

REGAL ROAST — Surrounded by onion cups filled with a cranberry relish, this regal rib roast is good enough to make anyone drool. An easy meal to prepare, this roast can give you time away from the kitchen chores to enjoy Christmas with your family and guests.

Rib roast guarantees memorable Christmas

A gala sit-down dinner sets a convivial yuletide mood. And when a magnificent beef rib roast heads the menu, the evening will be memorable. Roast beef fills the special occasion role superbly, providing the ultimate in dining pleasure. Thick, tender and juicy slices of beef carved from ribs roasted to the diners' preference surpass all table rivals.

Although no entree is more elegant than a high and handsome rib roast, none is simpler to prepare to perfection. Roast beef stands on its own flavor merit, requiring no frills or fuss. No stuffing or gravy is needed; no basting and little watching are required. The roast travels smoothly from refrigerator to oven to table with minimal attention.

BEEF RIB ROAST (3 to 4-rib beef rib roast)

Place roast, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so bulb is centered in the thickest part of roast. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees) to desired degree of doneness. The meat thermometer will register 140 degrees for rare; 160 degrees for medium; 170 degrees for well done.

For a 4- to 6-pound roast, allow 26 to 32 minutes per pound for rare, 34 to 38 minutes for medium and 40 to 42 minutes for well done. For a 6- to 8-pound roast, allow 23 to 25 minutes per pound for rare, 27 to 30 for medium and 32 to 35 for well done.

For easier carving, allow roast to "stand" in a warm place 15 to 20 minutes after removal from oven. Since roasts usually continue to cook after removal from oven, it is best to remove them when thermometer registers about 5 degrees below the temperature of doneness desired.

For a glamorous and tasty accompaniment, surround the regal beef roast with Onion Relish Cups. For this tasty treat, delicately flavored sweet Spanish onions are filled with a colorful uncooked cranberry-orange relish and baked alongside the roast.

ROAST CAPON With Savory Stuffing

1 5- to 6-pound capon
1/4 cup slivered orange peel
1 cup reconstituted frozen concentrated orange juice
1 cup finely chopped celery
1 cup minced onion
1 cup finely cut dates
1 cup finely chopped pecans
2 tablespoons parsley flakes
1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
1 package (8 ounces) prepared stuffing mix

Sprinkle body cavities of capon with salt and pepper. To prepare stuffing, combine all remaining ingredients; toss together lightly. Pack into body cavity and use any remaining in neck cavity. Hook wing tips into back to hold skin over neck opening; truss back opening or secure with metal skewers. Place capon, breast side up, in foil-lined roasting pan. Insert a meat thermometer in center of thigh muscle next to body cavity. Cover loosely with foil. Roast capon in 350 degree oven for about three hours or until thermometer indicates 190 degrees. During last 30 minutes, remove foil and brush occasionally with pan drippings. Yields six to eight servings.

During holiday season

Activities end shopping blues

Wondering what to do this weekend to escape the usual round of holiday shopping? Residents in Western Wayne County can brighten their weekend and mix entertainment with fun at two locations in the Detroit metropolitan area.

For those tired of watching the annual television presentation of "The Wizard of Oz" Dorothy, her dog, the Tin Man and others will follow the yellow brick road on the stage of Performing Arts Center at the University of Detroit-Marygrove College.

The play will be staged at 2 and 8:30 p.m. Saturday and 2 and 7:30 p.m. Sunday. For information and ticket reservations contact the Performing Arts Center box office at 927-2230. The play is a revival of last season's production and will feature the lyrics and music of the famous Judy Garland film.

Under the direction of Dominic Missimi, the 40-member cast includes Mary Callaghan as Dorothy, John Swyer as the Cowardly Lion, Owen J. Anderson as the Scarecrow and Henry Mustelier as the Tin Man.

On the yuletide side of entertainment, residents can step back into bygone years to sample Christmas Past at Greenfield Village.

Now through Jan. 5 the village will be displaying authentic Christmas decorations from appropriate periods in American history throughout its homes and shops.

Traditional Christmas music, demonstrations of holiday crafts and cookery, carolers and sleigh rides also will blend in with the scenery at the Dearborn-based village to re-create the Yule of years ago.

Also located at the site is Henry Ford Museum which will be showing off "The Crafts of Christmas" through the new year.

More than 12 craftsmen, garbed in traditional costumes will be demonstrating the skills of the pioneers on the museum's street of early America shops.

While perusing the sites at the village and museum, residents also will have a chance to take in the Greenfield Village Players holiday production of "Young King Arthur."

A version of the classic tale, it traces Arthur's journey through the enchanted forest to London to be proclaimed king.

Performances are scheduled for 2 p.m. Dec. 23, 26-31 and at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 28-31. Additional performances are scheduled for Jan. 4, 11, 18 and 25. On those days a 2 p.m. matinee will be offered.

For further information on the play contact 271-1620, ext. 264.

Nite's 'Rock On' fills pop reference void

By RIC BOHY
The Enterprise-Roman Book Reviewer

Filling a void which probably was noticed by few, Thomas Crowell Publishers

TINY VILLAIN—He may be small, but Herve Villechaize is deadly as the villain's henchman in the soon-to-be-released "The Man With The Golden Gun," the latest James Bond adventure starring Roger Moore.

of New York has released "Rock On," by Norm N. Nite.

Described by the author as "an illustrated encyclopedia of rock and roll," the massy volume purports to be a definitive reference work on the popular music scene of the '50s and early '60s.

Filled with background statistics, history and old publicity shots of the "heavy hitters" of the era, Nite's work might well be considered a necessity to those gum-chewing historians and '50s throwbacks who consider Elvis Presley's birthdate a matter of vital concern.

The tome is apparently a result of exhaustive research on the part of the author, who passed through Western Wayne County recently to promote his work.

Nite, a New York Disc Jockey, said he spent several years interviewing the arts and those who knew them, and claims to represent every recording star to have a record appear on the charts in the '50s and early '60s.

He explained away the glaring absence of such pop giants as The Beatles and The Rolling Stones by disclosing that "Rock On" is just one volume of what promises to be a 2-part masterwork.

But, take as is, Nite's work appears to have been conscientiously compiled and serves its place on the reference shelf next to the dictionaries of popular slang and guides to words that rhyme.

Of course, you'd like to help make the world a better place. Maybe you can't do it alone. But there's plenty you can do with others at your local church or synagogue. Example: one religious group helped the Navajos set up a cooperative trading post on their reservation. Now the Indians can purchase goods at a lower price. Even more important, they've learned that other people care about them. The God we worship expects all of us to help our brothers and sisters.

In Western Wayne County

Nearby slopes boon to money-careful skiers

Western Wayne County ski enthusiasts can stretch their recreation dollar by visiting slopes in their home state rather than opting for resorts in the western United States, Canada or Europe, according to Automobile Club of Michigan (AAA).

"Because of inflation and job uncertainties, fewer Michigan residents are expected to visit distant places for ski vacations than in recent years," said Joseph Ratke, AAA touring manager.

Ratke noted that in the past year, air fares from Detroit to Denver and Banff, a popular skiing area in Alberta, Canada, have risen 10 per cent with more rate hikes expected to come. During this same period, the average cost of airfare to well-known ski destinations in Switzerland and Austria has increased 28 per cent. "Although gasoline prices have gone up in Michigan since last winter, the added cost of driving to a Michigan ski area can be counted in pennies since the majority of state lodges are no more than a tankful of gas away for most skiers," he said.

With fuel expected to be in plentiful supply this season, most of Michigan's 56 ski lodge operators are anticipating an upswing in business from last winter.

Ratke added that skiers will find price increases ranging from 25 cents to $1.50 at 29 of the state's ski areas, with the remainder retaining last year's rates.

Boyne Mt., near Boyne Falls, and Boyne Highlands, near Harbor Springs, have the most expensive lift tickets in Michigan, set at $10 daily on weekends.

"Depending on the time and money a person may have, he or she will find that all four Michigan tourist regions offer fine skiing facilities," he said.

Here is a brief description of ski attraction in each state tourist region:

In Southeast Michigan the region's eight lodges cater primarily to Detroit-area residents who usually return home after spending a day on the slopes. Seven lodges offer night skiing, a rarity at most northern Michigan resorts.

The nine lodges in east Michigan are geared basically to families desiring economical skiing and wishing to spend one or more days away from home. The ski lodges do not offer overnight accommodations, but patrons often are able to find reasonably priced hotel-motel or tourist cabin lodgings at nearby towns.

In general, West Michigan's 26 ski areas rate as the most costly in the state, but they also offer the most deluxe facilities. Overnight lodging and a full range of other services, such as entertainment, cocktail lounges and heated pools, commonly are found at the larger West Michigan ski areas.

Major Upper Peninsula ski areas, including some with deluxe facilities, are located in the west end of the state and draw the bulk of their business from Wisconsin and Illinois. Lower Peninsula skiers visiting one of the 13 U.P. lodges will find snow earlier in the season and normally lasting longer into the spring than at areas south of the Mackinac Bridge.

Michigan skiers, however, will find seven fewer lodges this winter than last. Lodges closed this year are Brady's Hill and Carousell Mt. in West Michigan; Bear Mt.,

FonRo, Tyrolean Hills and Timberline in east Michigan and Circle TNT in southeast Michigan.

"Only one new ski area is now undergoing development in Michigan," Ratke said. "Vulcan U.S.A., being built in the Upper Peninsula near Iron Mountain, is scheduled to open next winter."

STUDENT-BUILT HOME — A new 3-bedroom ranch-style home with attached garage being built by students in the Building Trades Program at Romulus Senior High School is near completion at 9650 Ozga near Tyler Road in Romulus. An exterior view of the new home under construction is shown. It is the first residential structure undertaken in the program. The students also are constructing red barn storage sheds which are available for sale. — The Enterprise-Roman photo.

Draft signups drop to 'alarming' number

Draft registration totals in the downriver and adjacent communities were "alarmingly low" in November, according to Jacob P. Asma, supervisor of the Allen Park Selective Service Office. "The problem is that many young men and their families have the general notion that the draft is ended completely," Asma said.

Even though the draft is over, federal law still requires all male persons in the United States, except certain non-immigrant aliens, to be registered within a 60-day period beginning 30 days prior to their 18th birthday, Asma added.

Registrations may be accomplished through volunteer registrars at most high schools in the area, at the Allen Park Selective Service Office, 10501 Allen Road, or by writing to the Allen Park Office.

County agents to visit area

An out-county program to take complaints from residents of Sumpter Township, Van Buren Township and the City of Romulus has been initiated by the Wayne County Consumer Protection Agency.

Investigators from the agency have made arrangements with local governments to set up offices on alternating third Tuesdays of each month.

The service is offered as a convenience to consumers who cannot go the agency's central Detroit office, located at 356 E. Congress St., or who prefer not to file their complaints by mail or phone.

The alternating third Tuesday schedule for the agency's investigators is due to a limited staff.

In Van Buren Township the investigator will be at the Township Hall, 46425 Tyler Road, on Jan. 21 and on the third Tuesdays in the months of April, July and October.

In Sumpter Township, the investigator will be at the Township Hall, 23483 Sumpter Road, on the third Tuesdays of February, May, August and November.

In the City of Romulus, the investigator will be at the City Hall, 11111 S. Wayne Road, on the third Tuesday of March, June, September and December.

District governor visits Lions

The district governor of the Lions Club in Michigan District 11-A-1, Kenneth E. Lautzenheiser, was the featured guest at the recent dinner-meeting of the Belleville Lions Club.

The meeting was held at the Polish National Alliance (PNA) Hall, located on Sumpter Road at Willis Road in Sumpter Township.

Lautzenheiser, who was accompanied by his wife, Rowena, arranged his official visit to the local Lions organization to promote a Lions of Michigan project: the Penrickton School for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, located at 26530 Eureka Road in Taylor.

Lions of District 11-A-1 are to gather tomorrow at the Penrickton School to deliver proceeds from the district governor's "Can a Man" project.

It also was reported that the annual Lions Candy Cane Sale will begin in the Belleville area on Dec. 21.

While visiting the Belleville Lions Club, the district governor and his wife met Michele Pyshnik, 14, who recently won the title of Miss March of Dimes for 1975.

Michele is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pyshnik of 48496 Ellen Drive in Belleville.

171 reported for the same month last year, according to State Police traffic division provisional figures.

This was the first monthly increase in 16 months, compared with corresponding months last year.

The November toll also included most of the 23 deaths provisionally recorded for traffic accidents during the Thanksgiving Day holiday period. One day of the period, Dec. 1 with three reported deaths, does not figure in the November total.

November's count was 15 less than the average of 189 for that month in the 5-year period of 1969-73. All-time high for November was 283 in 1968 while the low was 87 in wartime 1942.

November traffic deaths in Michigan numbered 174, which was three more than

State traffic deaths increase in November

The annual election meeting of the Polish National Alliance (PNA) Lodge 2984, initially scheduled for Dec. 1, has been postponed until 2 p.m. Jan. 5 at the PNA Hall located on Sumpter Road at Willis Road.

The election and installation of officers will then be held, according to Mary Wisniewski, secretary of the lodge.

All members in good standing are invited to attend this important meeting.

Help us feed the needy this Christmas

Bring in a can of food Save a $1.00 on a barrel

This year, Kentucky Fried Chicken and The Salvation Army have joined together to help make this a merrier Christmas for needy families in Belleville & Romulus.

At each participating Kentucky Fried Chicken store you'll find a collection barrel in which you can deposit cans of food. Then The Salvation Army will distribute it to those who need it most.

Bring in a can of food now and in appreciation we'll give you $1.00 off a barrel of Kentucky Fried Chicken.

So, please help us fill our "holiday kettles" to the brim. You'll give someone a Merry Christmas.

And you'll give yourself a Merry Christmas just knowing you helped. Offer good now through Dec. 24 at participating Kentucky Fried Chicken Stores.

Unemployment soars in metropolitan area

Unemployment soared during November in both the State and the Detroit metropolitan area, hitting 8.8 per cent in Michigan and 9.1 per cent in the Wayne County, S. Martin Taylor, Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC) Director said.

Taylor warned that despite their increases, these November rates do not reflect the heavy auto industry layoffs which occurred during the last two weeks of the month, since they came after the Nov. 15 cut off date for reporting unemployment data.

The number of Michigan jobless climbed to 342,000 in November, an increase of 278,500 or 7.2 per cent of the labor force, Taylor added. A year ago, November 1973, the unemployment rate was 5.3 per cent with 203,200 jobless. The current November rate is the highest for the month since 1959 when it reached 11.5 per cent, with 345,000 unemployed in the State.

In the Detroit metropolitan area including Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Lapeer, Livingston and St. Clair counties, 170,700 were unemployed in November compared to 151,000 or 8.1 per cent in October. Last year the jobless rate was 5.5 per cent with 101,600 out of work. For the Detroit area the current November jobless rate is the highest for the month since 1959 when it reached 9.8 per cent with 143,000 unemployed.

Taylor said the sharp unemployment increases resulted from layoffs in the manufacturing industries, and jobseekers entering the labor force seeking holiday employment. He added that the MESC will be handling unemployment claims for 200,300 people because of the many layoffs during November.

To help with the flood of claims and payments, the MESC will accept a UAW offer to use union halls.

Ma Bell predicts record number of calls

Michigan Bell is predicting a record number of long distance calls on Christmas Day.

Christmas is the busiest holiday of the year for the telephone company and this year call volume will be greater than ever, the company predicted Monday.

"Last year, when a great many Michigan residents stayed home over the holiday because of the energy crunch, long distance calling increased more than 13 per cent," said Eugene L. Greek, local manager for Michigan Bell Telephone Co. "The company expects holiday calling will increase about 10½ per cent this year. "If people don't travel as much over the holiday, they are going to want to talk to their families, and that means long distance calls will increase again this year."

He added that Michigan residents will make about 1,120,000 long distance calls this Christmas compared to slightly more than one million calls last year.

The majority of long distance holiday calls originating in Michigan last year were made to other points within the state, Greek said. The same pattern is expected this year with about 670,000 long distance calls within the state and another 450,000 calls to other states.

About 100,000 long distance calls are expected to be handled by operators, with the remainder dialed directly by customers, he continued. Statewide, some 2,600 Michigan Bell operator service employees will work on Christmas Day helping customers with their calls, Greek said.

Nationwide, the Bell System anticipates about 15.5 million interstate long distance calls will be made.

Across the country, the telephone industry opens up normally unused circuits and rearranges circuits usually used for heavy business day calling to make available the maximum number of transmission paths for Christmas calls. Despite this, customers may encounter busy circuits during the heaviest calling periods, Greek said.

He had a few tips on how telephone customers can save money and help speed their calls.

First, for the lowest possible rates, dial your own calls. Next, the telephone network will be very busy on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day until very late each night. You can avoid the Christmas calling rush by phoning earlier in the week.

If you didn't have the telephone number that you need in a distant city, call Directory Assistance in the distant city before the holiday rush so you will have the number when you are ready to place the call. On Christmas Day, early morning or afternoon calls have a better chance of going right through. This means mostly calls made before 8 a.m. and calls made between 1 and 5 p.m. in the time zone of the family or friends you are calling.

20803 BROCK EAST DETROIT

"The Yellow Pages is the best prescription for curing profit problems!"

"We've used the Yellow Pages since we opened our pharmacy in East Detroit, and we keep using it. We like to keep our name before a constantly changing public," claims Joseph A. Sokal, Hennessy Pharmacy, 20803 Brock, East Detroit. "One year we used a coded telephone number in our ad and received approximately 100 calls per week on that line alone. Almost our entire advertising budget goes for the Yellow Pages."

"The Yellow Pages is a great friend to have—especially when a businessman is just getting started," says Michael Richardson, Dependable Battery Co., 13550 Dix Toledo Road, Southgate. "Two years ago we opened our battery shop and placed an ad in the Yellow Pages hoping to draw retail business to supplement our wholesale accounts. You can imagine our surprise when we got a large wholesale account that had located us through the Yellow Pages! Wholesale or retail, our Yellow Pages ad more than pays for itself."

"When I bought Warren Rustproofing, one of the first things I did was increase the Yellow Pages advertising. We are now in five different directories. We don't advertise in any other medium because we don't need to. Approximately 75% of our new business comes from the Yellow Pages. Our faith in the Yellow Pages has been rewarded. Although this year and the one before were supposed to be slow in retail sales, we've done fine."

Jim Malget, Warren Rustproofing, 25600 Van Dyke, Center Line.

"A little less than two years ago, I decided to open my own driver training school," explains Peggy Ostro, ABC Driving School, 542 West 8 Mile Road, Ferndale. "As quickly as I could, I took out a large ad in the Yellow Pages. Why? Because it's the best source of business I know. At least 90% of my business, and perhaps more during my first year, could be traced directly to my Yellow Pages ad. The Yellow Pages is the most efficient advertising medium I know."

Travel the Yellow Pages road to sales success. Call your Yellow Pages representative!

Hometown service personnel finish training

Several Western Wayne County residents recently completed a variety of training programs and have advanced in their chosen branches of the armed services.

Navy Electrician's Mate Third Class Carson Caudill II, the son of Carson Caudill of 19250 Sylvia, Romulus, graduated from electrician's mate school at the Naval Base, Great Lakes, Ill.

He was instructed in the installation, maintenance and repair of shipboard generators, electric motors and light and power distribution systems. Navy Electronics

Technician Third Class Steven P. Bullard, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ebert M. Bullard of 45122 Hull Road, Belleville, has graduated from the Advanced Electronics Technician School at the Service School Command, Great Lakes, Ill. During the 8-week course, he received instruction in the maintenance and repair of naval communication systems at transmitter sites.

Bullard is scheduled to report to Radio Transmitter Facility at Annapolis, Md. A 1972 graduate of Belleville High School, he joined the Navy in September 1973.

Airman Randolph J. Wiley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Wiley of 13239 Rawsonville Road, Belleville, has been assigned to Ellsworth AFB, S.D., as a vehicle operator after completing Air Force basic training.

A 1970 graduate of Airport Exeter Road, received specialized training in using

Bill to protect consumers

Michigan consumers soon will be protected from the unscrupulous "trick-tactics" of collection agencies and their representatives throughout the state. Senate Bill 439, sponsored by Sen. William B. Faust (D-Westland), requiring licensing and state regulation of all collection firms, won final approval in the Senate last week.

The bill prohibits several common practices used by collection agencies to harass consumers and cause them undue anxiety and embarrassment, including the use of misleading legal-looking letterheads in communications with consumers; threatening to reveal a person's indebtedness to an employer; hiring of unlicensed representatives to collect claims; using scare tactics or threats to collect a claim and using oppressive or profane language for the purpose of collecting a claim.

Under the provisions of the bill, collection agencies will be responsible to the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulation in the areas of rules of conduct, disciplinary procedures, investigations and settlement of claims.

"Collection agencies have been operating with no effective rules or regulations in dealing with consumers," Faust said. "They have been allowed to intimidate, harass and threaten, to misrepresent themselves as legal agencies, in short, to strong-arm the public with deceptive practices with no fear of reprimand or action.

"This legislation authorizes the State to require licensing of all collection firms and determine their fitness to operate. They will be out of business, if they fail to comply with the state regulations.

The collection practices act, supported by Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley and the Michigan Consumers Council, is expected to be signed formally into law within two weeks.

USDA to alter meat grading standards plan

Some Western Wayne County residents may not know that the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) grades beef, but understanding how they work may help those people comprehend the proposed changes in the standards.

According to Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, federal grading of beef is a voluntary service for which users pay a fee. Most beef which qualifies for the top two grades — U.S. Prime and U.S. and U.S. Choice — federally is graded for quality. Only about one-fourth of beef eligible for the good grade is graded.

Quality grades predict the "eating quality" of meat, which is indicated by color, firmness, texture and marbling (flecks of fat within the lean) of the meat in relation to its maturity (age of the animal when slaughtered). Slaughter cattle also is graded for yield (percentage of trimmed retail cuts the carcass will produce) and for conformation (shape of the carcass).

Marbled beef is considered more tender, juicier and tastier. It is the result of grain-feeding the cattle. USDA says edible beef may be produced with less or no grain-feeding, which would lower the cost of producing cattle.

The proposed changes in grading beef are detailed and complicated but one major revision is conformation which would no longer be considered.

Conformation does not affect eating quality of beef, but does affect yields of retail cuts. Under the present system, if a beef carcass has prime grade quality, but has only good grade conformation, it is graded choice. Under the proposed standards, beef in each of the grades would include only beef of that quality.

All carcasses graded would be identified for both quality grade and yield grade. The less trimmable fat, the higher the yield grade and the more the carcass is worth. Carcasses of the same weight and quality grade can vary in value due to differences in yields of trimmed retail cuts. USDA said pricing which reflected such differences "could provide a powerful incentive for producing cattle that have the genetic ability to produce carcasses which combine high cutability and high quality lean." Production of these cattle would require less grain and this would lower production costs. According to USDA, the net effect, increased production at less cost and less waste fat, could be reflected in lower prices at the retail level.

For beef from cattle under about 30 months of age, the minimum amount of marbling required in each grade, except good, would be set at the level now required for the youngest carcasses that qualify as beef, instead of increasing with increasing age. For beef from cattle over about 30 months old, increased marbling still would be required with increasing maturity within each grade.

For the good grade, the youngest carcasses would have to show more marbling.

CITY OF ROMULUS ORDINANCE CHAPTER IX, ARTICLE 1.1

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND SECTION 15 (LICENSE FEES) OF CHAPTER IX, ARTICLE 1, CITY OF ROMULUS CODE OF ORDINANCES.

WHEREAS: The cost of maintaining an animal pound and providing for enforcement of the Animal Ordinance has substantially increased, and the City Council for the City of Romulus deems it in the best interest of the health, safety and welfare of the citizens and residents of the City of Romulus to provide adequate control of animals within the City Limits, and to increase license fees and to provide additional revenue for the above.

THE CITY OF ROMULUS ORDAINS:
Short Title: This amendment shall be known as the "Animal License Fee Amendment".

SECTION 1.
1.00 Section 15 of Chapter IX, Article I, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1.
1.00 Section 15 of Chapter IX, Article 1, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 15. License Fees.

At the time of making application, and for each renewal thereof, the owner shall pay the Treasurer, or such other persons as the City Treasurer shall from time to time designate, the following license fee. All applications or each renewal thereof made on or before March 1st, the same shall be accompanied by a license fee of Four ($4.00) Dollars for each male or unsexed dog, and the sum of Five ($5.00) Dollars for each female dog, provided, however, that all applications of renewals thereof made after March 1st, the same shall be accompanied by a license fee of Five Dollars and Fifty Cents ($5.50) for each male dog or unsexed dog and Six Dollars and Fifty Cents ($6.50) for each female dog and, provided, further, however, that any person making application for a dog license within ten (10) days after such dog shall have attained the age of four (4) months old or older, or proof that said applicant was not a resident of the City prior to ten (10) days of the date of application, then said applicant shall be permitted to purchase a license at the regular fee of Four ($4.00) Dollars for each male or unsexed dog, and the sum of Five ($5.00) Dollars for each female dog. Said license fees shall not be considered any part of any fine or sentence imposed by Court action for any violation of this Act. A license must be purchased from the City of Romulus if a dog is to be kept in the City for more than ten (10) days during a license year.

SECTION 11. Conflicting Provision Repealed.
2.00 All Ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are repealed only to the extent necessary to give this Ordinance full force and effect.

SECTION III. Effective Date.

3.00 This Ordinance shall become effective immediately upon publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation.

I, Leonard J. Folmar, Clerk for the City of Romulus do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of an ordinance duly adopted by the Romulus City Council at its regular meeting held on the 26th day of November, 1974.

Said petition shall contain the text of such ordinance and shall be signed by not less than six (6) percent of the registered electors registered at the last preceding election at which a Mayor of the City was elected. Said ordinance shall thereupon and thereby be suspended from operation and the Council shall immediately reconsider such ordinance.

Seniors' action group forms in Van Buren

A Senior Citizens Action Committee has been formed in Van Buren Township.

An eight-member committee to provide information and referral services was organized by the Van Buren Township Parks and Recreation Department with the approval of the Township Board of Trustees.

Recreation Director Jeffery G. Clark spent more than three weeks contacting and visiting various committees already established in adjacent communities relative to organizing Van Buren's Action Committee.

"It was an extremely fruitful venture," said Clark. "Many of these departments have given us a great deal of help in designing our proposed program."

After viewing other departments, the Parks and Recreation Department decided to form a committee of senior citizens to plan the sort of services "we can feasibly provide," Clark added.

Appointed to serve as members of the committee were:

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hornkohl, Nelson Nadeau, Nellie Van Wormer, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Hunter, Mike Sirdanik, Bunny Rogers and Loyd Freeman.

The committee's initial proposed programs include:

A roster of senior citizens in the area, Dial-A-Friend, a program which senior citizens use to call senior citizens shut-ins; a senior citizens' newsletter; important telephone number directory; and an eventual "Helpful Hotline" designed to provide volunteers for shut-in senior citizens.

"These programs were chosen as goals because most of them are relatively simple and inexpensive to administer," Clark said.

Legislature honors Michele

An eighth grade student at Belleville's South Junior High School who won the Miss March of Dimes for 1975 crown received additional honors at an all-student assembly at the school.

A formal resolution introduced in the Michigan House of Representatives with the Michigan State Senate concurring paid high tribute to Michele Pyshnik, 14, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pyshnik of 48496 Ellen Drive, Belleville.

The presentation of House Concurrent Resolution No. 596 was held Friday morning at an all-student assembly at her school.

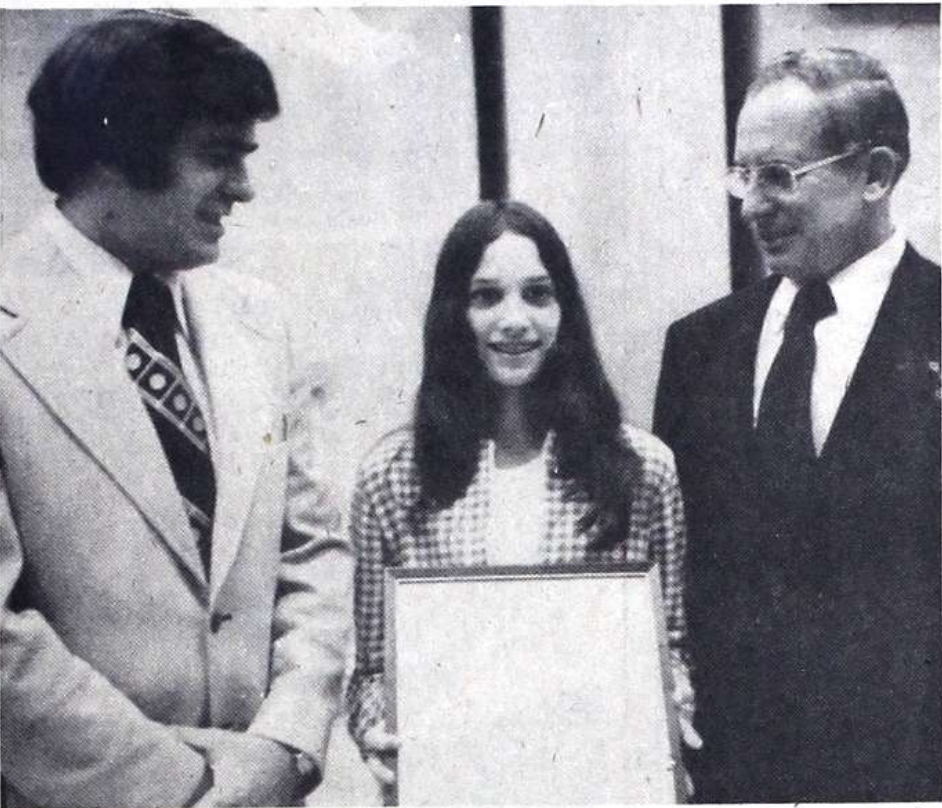

Officials from the Detroit Metropolitan Chapter of the March of Dimes, Van Buren School Supt. Dale E. Kaulitz, State Rep. Gary M. Owen (D-Ypsilanti), co-sponsor of the House resolution; South Junior High School Principal Don F. White and members of his administrative staff; Student Council officers; and Michele's parents were in attendance at the presentation.

"It is most appropriate that official recognition be extended Michele Pyshnik upon winning the Michigan Miss March of Dimes contest for 1975. Indeed, this accomplishment is worthy of the highest praise and exaltation," the resolution said. Michele won the coveted title over 43 finalists from schools throughout Michigan.

HONORED BY STATE—The Detroit Metropolitan area's new Miss March of Dimes for 1975, Michele Pyshnik, 14, of Belleville, received official recognition from the Michigan House and Senate upon winning the title. A formal resolution of

The resolution continued: "She truly is a most befitting recipient of this award, for Michele individually collected close to $1,000 for the March of Dimes."

The young title holder was sponsored by the Student Council at South Junior High School which staged a series of projects for the March of Dimes. These projects netted fund contributions totaling $11,836 for the March of Dimes.

The contribution total was a record for the Detroit Metropolitan Chapter of the March of Dimes, officials reported.

Michele was presented with a $500 scholarship by the Patricia Stevens Finishing School, various prizes and a trophy for her school.

"Miss Pyshnik is a young woman with many interests and talents. She is captain of her cheerleading squad, a member of the swimming team and a member of the Student Council at her school," the resolution added. "Truly, it may be said that her great humanitarian efforts and school activities are an eloquent testimony to her dedication to the welfare of her fellow citizens."

Township studies new call system

A new answering system in the handling of fires in the township is under study by the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

The study, to be directed by fire commissioner and Township Board member Darwin Kureth, primarily will include ways and means of summoning township firemen to their respective fire stations.

Kureth also was authorized by the Township Board to check into the purchase of radio or related equipment that can be used in summoning firemen when a fire occurs in the township.

The township trustees initiated the study following the receipt of a communication from the 24-hour Wayne Answering Service of 3146 S. Wayne Road, Wayne.

The firm stated that it is discontinuing its service to the township effective upon the township getting a replacement service or other means of answering fire calls.

Currently all calls to the township's two fire departments are answered by Wayne Answering Service.

The firm summons the township's volunteer firemen by activating sirens located near the fire stations.

Presently, township firemen received $9 for the initial fire call and $3.25 an hour for overtime spent in extinguishing fires.

At the Township Board's recent session, Kureth reported that a central radio location in fighting fires still is under investigation.

In a related matter, the trustees authorized Kureth to purchase four snow tires for the township's fire truck.

He is to check with at least three different tire firms on the purchase, expected to cost $550 to $600.

Water work begins

The construction of a water line extension to serve residents in the Bemis and Sumpter roads area in Van Buren Township will soon get underway.

A bid proposal of $75,001.50, submitted by G.G.L. Construction for the construction of 2,905 lineal feet of water line extension along Bemis Road east of Sumpter Road, received the approval of the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

The trustees approval in contingent on the bidder meeting the requirements within the time limits specified. Otherwise the contract is to to the second lowest bidder. Six bid proposals were received by the township on the project.

In other matters, the trustees re-appointed to the township's Board of Canvassers Julia Sawmiller, Manley Baldwin and David Mullins, who will serve 1-year terms. The trustees also:

—tabled the Haggerty Road sewer project in the Van Buren Estates Subdivision area pending receipt of further information from the township engineer.

—Authorized travel for those Township Board members who want to attend sessions of the annual meeting of the Michigan Townships Association.

The meeting will be held Jan. 8-10 at Grand Rapids.

Holiday outline set up

A 1975 holiday schedule listing days to be recognized as paid holidays for Van Buren Township employees and days on which township offices will be closed will begin with the celebration and observance of New Year's Day.

The following 1975 holidays will be paid holidays for township employees: Washington's Birthday, Good Friday (one-half day), Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and New Year's Eve.

Township offices will be open on Dec. 26 and on Jan. 2 when half of the township employees will have paid holidays off.

The township's trash pickup operation will run four days each week of Christmas 1975 and New Year's 1976.

Search narrows to four

Interviewing sessions between school officials and applicants seeking to fill the vacant post of supervisor of buildings and grounds for the Van Buren Public School District begin this week.

Van Buren School Supt. Dale E. Kaulitz said four applicants who presently are being considered for the post will be interviewed by members of the Van Buren Board of Education and school administrators.

Township employees to party

The Van Buren Township employees' Christmas party will be held at 5 p.m. on Dec. 23.

The Christmas party will be held in the conference room at Township Hall immediately after work.

Gift exchange, refreshments and beverages will be served.

Save money this winter.

Cut your heating costs up to 17% with our official insulation program.

Last fall, at the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Michigan Consolidated introduced a low-cost home ceiling insulation program designed to conserve Natural Gas and cut heating costs up to 17%.

How successful has the program been? Well, in the past 10 months, more than 37,700 homeowners have installed ceiling insulation and, as a result, over one billion cubic feet of Natural Gas per year is being conserved. That's enough to heat over 6,500 additional homes this winter. And, that's why we're continuing our insulation program again this fall. Because now is the time to insulate and save.

The heart of our program is simply this: Install six inches of ceiling insulation in your home. It's a quick, easy and inexpensive project that most homeowners can accomplish by themselves for about $100.

How can you get the job done? First, you can do it yourself, and we'll gladly provide a free handbook that tells you how. Secondly, you can have it done by an insulation contractor and, if you wish, we will provide you with a list of qualified firms. Or, third, we can have the job done for you through one of our participating subcontractors. The cost is often under $200 for homes with less than 1,000 square feet of ceiling area.

If you want the job done through one of our participating subcontractors, we have a payment plan to suit every budget. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

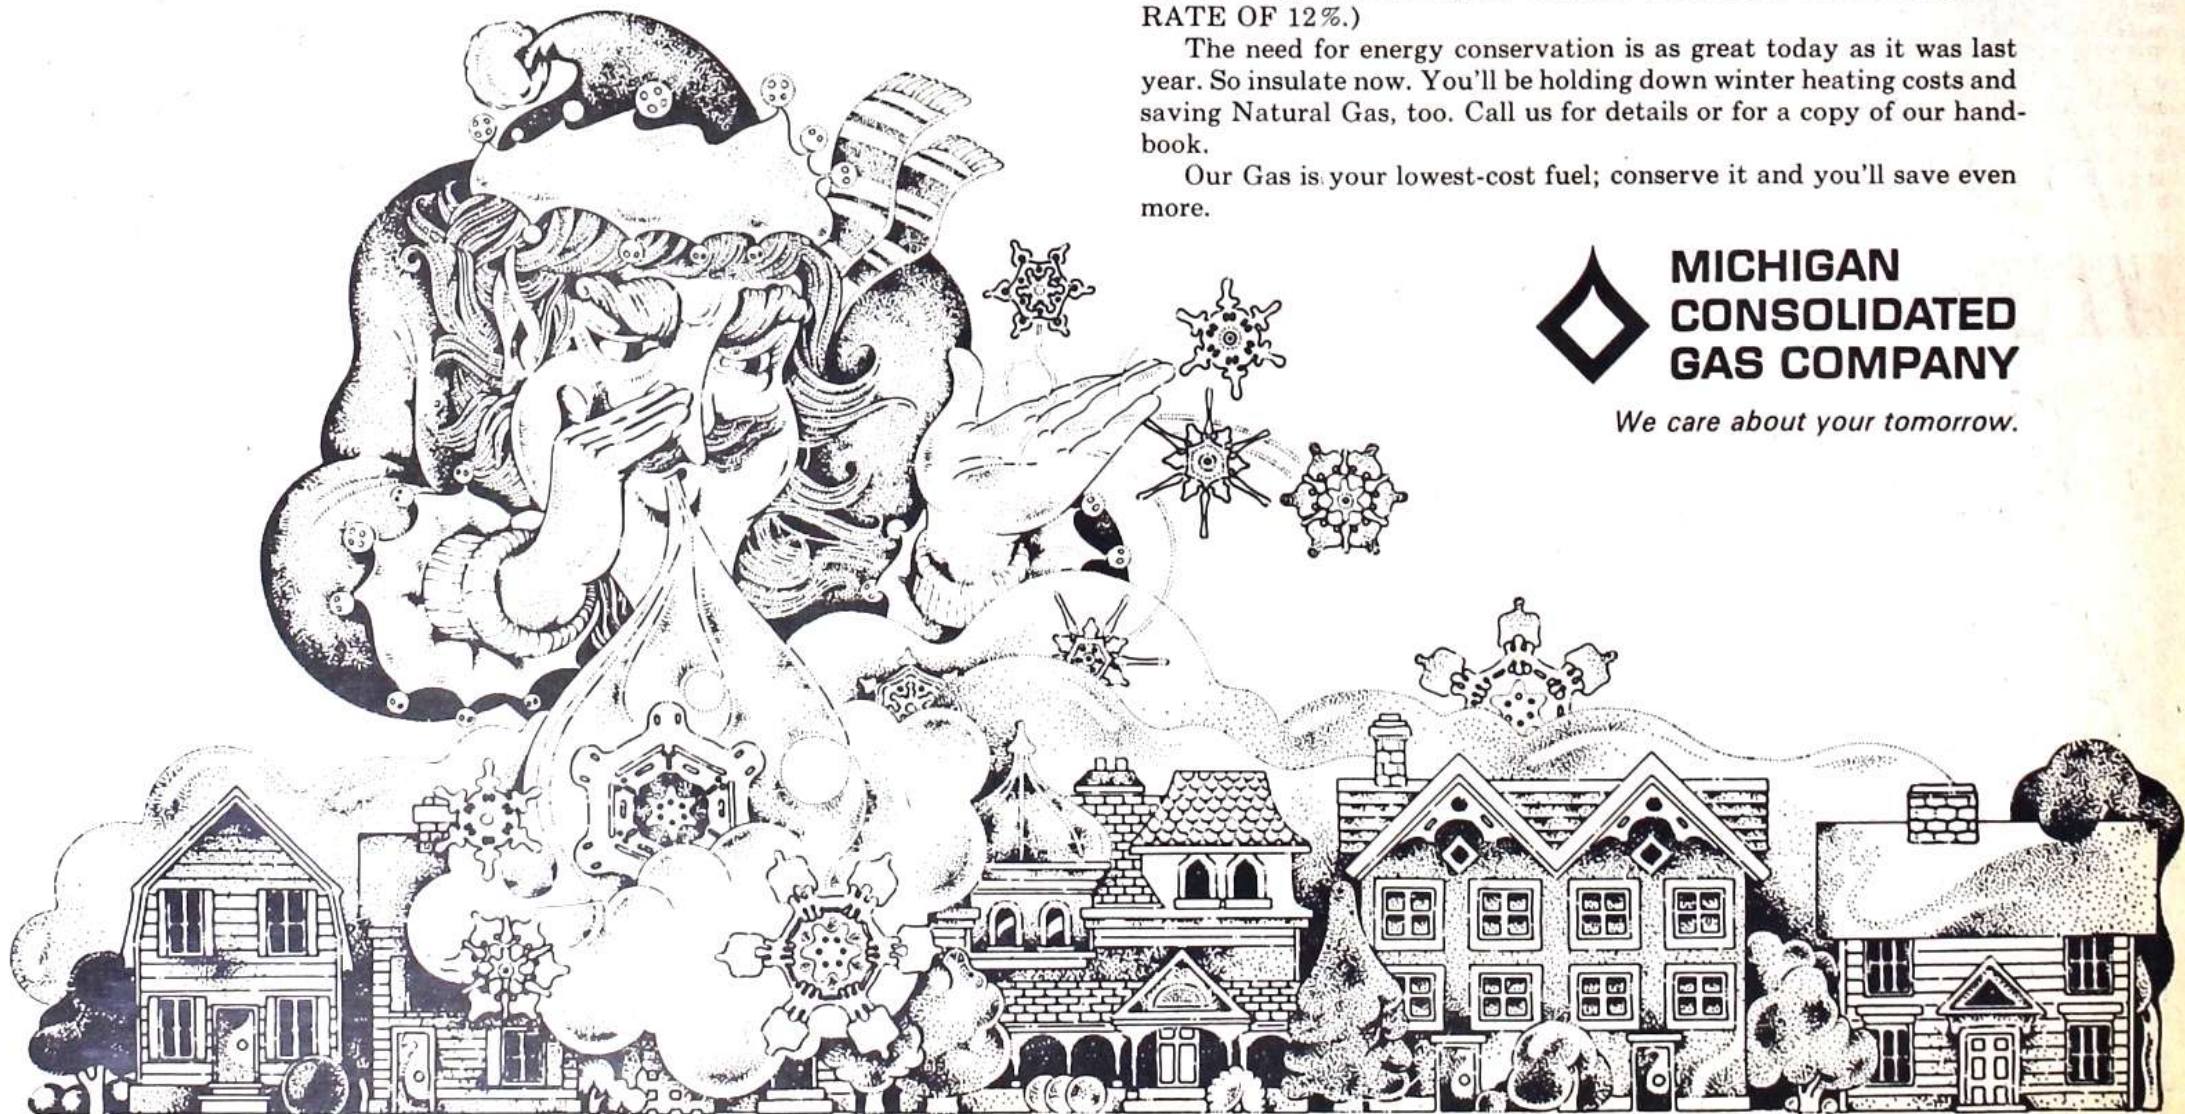

The need for energy conservation is as great today as it was last year. So insulate now. You'll be holding down winter heating costs and saving Natural Gas, too. Call us for details or for a copy of our handbook.

Our Gas is your lowest-cost fuel; conserve it and you'll save even more.

Belleville High to get anti-crime light system

The installation of anti-crime lighting at Belleville High School is one of two major projects being used to meet the mounting reports of vandalism and theft in the Van Buren Public School District.

The Van Buren Board of Education approved anti-crime lighting at the high school grounds and has ordered a complete investigation of security systems in the district's buildings.

Incoming business manager for the district Jack Hosmer is to conduct the evaluation of the security systems.

The two projects were authorized by the Board of Education following a report submitted at a recent session describing vandalism and thefts at district schools particularly at the high school, South Junior High School and Quirk Road Elementary School.

The lighting equipment will be rented from the Detroit Edison Company and will be used to illuminate the darkened areas behind the high school.

The firm was asked by school administrators last spring to undertake a study of the area following repeated acts of vandalism.

At the suggestion of the Edison Co. the district will rent five 400-watt floodlights at a cost of $945 per year, or $78.75 per month.

Board President R. Lynne Hamilton proposed the security review following discussions on break-in problems at several schools in the district.

Among the problems with the present security system was the fact that alarms only are activated when a door is opened and are responded to only if a person in the area reports them, it was stated.

Red Cross seeks Christmas donors

In an attempt to avoid a holiday shortage, Red Cross is urging all eligible donors to give blood on "Save a Life Sunday," Dec. 29.

On Sunday, Red Cross blood donor sites will be open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at seven locations throughout the tri-county area to collect blood.

Included in the donor sites are the Northwest Donor Station, 32316 Five Mile Road in Livonia; and the Red Cross West Regional Office, 2440 S. Telegraph Road, Dearborn.

Red Cross is enlisting the support of the community because 11 industrial blood drives were cancelled, automobile employees are not scheduled to work the week between Christmas and New Year, and groups are reluctant to hold bloodmobile visits between Dec. 23 and Jan. 3, said Ralph Jenkins, director of the blood program.

Hospitals admit 27 for treatment

Twenty-seven residents of Western Wayne County were admitted to the hospital for either surgical or medical treatment during the first part of December.

Admitted to Belvil Community Hospital in Belleville for surgery were Ypsilanti residents Alice F. McCoy of Delaware, Jimmy E. Rhodes of MacArthur Boulevard and Letha K. Hamilton of Grove; and Belleville resident Janis L. Burnette of Elwell Road.

Entering Belvil for medical treatment were Belleville residents Fayette Lewis of Waltz Road, Irene McFall of Sumpter Road, Kim L. Olmsted of Jackson Court and Opal A. Phelps of Farm Road; and Ypsilanti resident Cora G. Hunt of East Cross.

Admitted for surgery to Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti were Belleville residents Margaret Nowak of Willis Road, Glen Desbouvillons of Willis Road, Alma R. Ard of Main, Jeanette A. Gauthier of Jackson, Mrs. Joseph Gora of Fenster, Michelle Denomme of Sumpter Road, Terry Christensen of Quirk, David Arquette of Martinsville Road, Marlow Fowler of Collyer Court, Nellie P. Sides of Mott, John P. Stevens of Sunrise Lane and Shari L. Smith of Bell Road.

Admitted to Beyer for medical treatment were Belleville residents Almon B. Quinn of Edgewood, Chiffon V. Jones of Rawsonville Road, James Chie Jr. of Jeanette, Margaret Hanna of Church, Dorothy V. Noiseau of E. Huron River Drive and Arthur A. Pollakowski of Haggerty Road.

In addition, three couples became proud parents with the births of their babies at Beyer. They were:

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Switzer of Liberty in Belleville, with a 6 lb. 11 oz. girl; Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderwerken of Locust in Belleville, with a 6 lb. 12 oz. boy; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hudson of Crandell Court in Belleville, with a 9 lb. 14 oz. girl.

Top off your time savings with Security's big 7 1/4% interest!

That's right! Now you can earn a whopping big 7-1/4% interest with our Security Investors' Certificate.

All it takes is a minimum investment of $1000 or more, on deposit for 48 months. Every 6 months—that's 8 times over the next 4 years—you'll receive valuable interest on your savings!

Not quite ready for a 7-1/4% investment? Then take a look at these possibilities... three more important ways to build real financial security at Security Bank & Trust.

6-1/2% Security Investors' Certificates with 2-1/2, 3 or 3-1/2-year maturities. $500 minimum investment or more. Interest paid every 6 months.

6% Security Investors' Certificates with 1, 1-1/2, or 2-year maturities. $500 minimum investment or more. Interest paid every 6 months.

5-1/2% Security Time Passbook. 5-1/2% compounded daily yields 5.65% annually, maturing every calendar quarter. Initial minimum deposit $500. Add $1 or more at any time.

Federal law and regulation prohibit the payment of a time deposit prior to maturity unless three months of the interest thereon is forfeited and interest on the amount withdrawn is reduced to the passbook rate.
